First Holy Communion Sheets

We will have a break from the Sheets for Holy Week and Easter. I would encourage parents to bring those preparing for First Holy Communion to all of the Easter Triduum as, of course, on Maundy Thursday we celebrate the Last Supper when the Eucharist was instituted. The most important part of the preparation for Holy Communion is the attending of Mass and particularly at times like Holy Week.

The next sheets can be collected on Divine Mercy Sunday 7th/8th April.

Blessed Sacrament Procession

29th April 2018

On Saturday 28th April at 2.00 pm Bishop Patrick will lead the annual Blessed Sacrament Procession the streets of central Nottingham; starting at St Mary's, Hyson Green, and proceeding to the Cathedral for Benediction at around 4.00 pm. After Benediction prayers will be said before the tomb of the Venerable Mary Potter to pray for her Beatification. For more information please make contact with Fr David Palmer email: catholicdavid@me.com

Thank You

Elaine Hemingway would like to thank everyone who helped in any way during Paul's funeral last week; she is most grateful for your support.

Peoples Ponderings

Today we start our journey through the most important week of the Liturgical Year, as we journey with our Lord through the events of Holy Week. During our lives, we are hopefully aware of God walking with us, especially through the tough times. This week we return the favour, as we walk with our Lord, gathering around him at the Last Supper, helping to carry his cross up the Hill of Calvary and then feeling the great joy of celebrating his resurrection.

The Easter Triduum - Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil - are one service, shown by the fact that we begin with the sign of the cross on Maundy Thursday and have no blessing until the end of the Easter Vigil. Therefore, I strongly encourage you to come to all the Easter Triduum Services. They complement each other and missing one part, takes the other events out of their context. I pray that this Holy Week, will be a chance for us all to come closer to the Lord, to truly enter into the amazing events which were done for the love of us.

Wishing you and your families a Blessed and Holy Easter.

Fr Neil
