all who have died recently, may they rest in peace; for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for Maureen Croft and all who are sick and housebound.

The Pope's Prayer Intention for March 2019. Evangelisation: that Christian communities, especially those who are persecuted, feel that they are close to Christ and have their rights respected.

Please join us in the Parish Hall for tea and coffee after the 9.00 am Sunday Mass

Fr Neil – Operation

I have now received a date for my operation; it will take place on Monday 18th March. This will mean that I will be away from the parish for a few weeks to recover. During my absence, Deacon Liam Carpenter will be living in the Presbytery and will be answering any urgent calls and emails. Canon Geoffrey Hunton will be supplying Masses for the weekends and will stay for Holy Week to give me some support on my return. Fr Wlodek has kindly offered to say some Masses in English during the week at Holy Souls. For those Masses that have had to be re-arranged the intentions have been moved to the next possible date. I apologise for any upset this may have caused. Please keep me in your prayers.

Fr Neil

Deacon Bernard Croft RIP

Thank you to everyone who helped to prepare for the Vigil and Requiem Mass for Deacon Bernard. It was a very prayerful couple of days and I am sure that Bernard will have been happy with how it went and the great numbers that came to pray for the repose of his soul. May he Rest in Peace. Amen.

'Sometimes we may feel we are alone in facing difficulties. But, even if He doesn't intervene immediately, the Lord walks by our side and, if we keep going forward, He will open up a new path.'
