Deacon's Deliberations

As I come to write my final Deacon's Deliberation for Easter, I would like to express my sincere gratitude and thanks to everybody in the parish of Holy Souls who have made me feel so welcome over these last few weeks during Fr Neil's convalescence. Both Canon Geoffrey and I deeply appreciate the kindness and help you have given to keep the parish 'ticking over' in Fr Neil's absence.

It was in many ways providential that Fr Neil should have undergone surgery during Lent, as it meant that I was able to accompany you, as we have journeyed together towards Easter. We have now arrived at the most solemn celebration of the Church's year, when we celebrate Christ's victory over sin, suffering, and death.

My final deliberation, therefore, is for all of you in the parish who are suffering, struggling, or facing any sort of challenge. As we have entered into the Pascal Mystery over these few days, we know that beyond the pain and suffering of Good Friday lies the glory of Easter. Never lose heart, our Easter will come, perhaps not today, or tomorrow, but Christ's love for us conquers all things - even death itself. I wish you, and your families a very happy and blessed Easter. Alleluia!

Deacon Liam
