Helena Kryslak, Anthony Flynn and all those who have died recently, may they rest in peace; for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for Maureen Croft and all who are sick and housebound.

The Pope's Prayer Intention for July 2019. Universal: that those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

Scunthorpe General Hospital

Please contact Fr Neil (01724 844895) if you, or a loved one, is in Hospital and would like a visit.

Please join us in the Parish Hall for tea and coffee after the 9.00 am Sunday Mass

Peoples Ponderings

Last weekend it was lovely to join around a hundred people from North Lincolnshire for the Ordination of Fr Liam Carpenter and Fr John Owens. I know speaking to some of you afterwards that, like me, you found it to be a very prayerful and joyful occasion. I was also happy to be able to attend Fr Liam's Mass of Thanksgiving in Leicester on the Sunday.

Whenever I attend an Ordination it reminds me of my own back in 2013. At the time it can feel like the end of a process having completed your training but in reality, it is the start of a new and exciting journey. The past six years have flown by and there have been ups and downs but overall it has been a very happy time. I would encourage you to pray for all new priests as they start their ministry, as it is the first few years which are the most difficult and challenging, with some priests sadly leaving ministry. From my year group, already two priests are no longer active, so the dangers to new priests are real. I'd like to take this chance to say thank you for your support and prayers for me since my arrival in North Lincolnshire, it is much appreciated.

Fr Neil

Fr Liam – First Blessing

After next weekend Masses, Fr Liam will be available for First Blessings. Traditionally after receiving the blessing you kiss the palms of the hand of the newly ordained, in recognition of the sacred character of his priesthood and of the hands that now hold the Eucharist and confer the Sacraments.

Fr Neil Away

I will be heading off on Wednesday for few days holiday (hopefully after watching Leicester beat Scunthorpe on the Tuesday night!) Fr Liam will be covering the weekend Masses and celebrating the funeral of Anthony Flynn RIP.

Mass for Catholics Working in Healthcare

Bishop Patrick will be celebrating a Mass for all Catholics working in the Diocese on Saturday 7th September at 11.30 am in St Barnabas Cathedral, Nottingham. The Mass will recognise the work of all Hospital and Hospice Chaplains. If you require any further information please contact Deacon David Knight email: david@sthughslincoln.org.uk

Canonisation of John Henry Newman

It has been recently announced that Blessed John Henry Newman is to be canonised on Sunday 13th October in Rome. This is a great moment for the Church, particularly here in England with many of you remembering the Beatification of John Henry Newman which took place during the Papal Visit of Pope Benedict XVI. A website has been set up with information regarding the Canonisation and for celebrations to take place in England after the 13th October.

Please note that during the week access to the Hall for Mass via the car park only. There will be NO ACCESS THROUGH THE CHURCH DURING THE WEEK.

Celebration of Mass during this time

Weekday Masses to be held in the Parish Hall. Sunday Masses, Funerals and Weddings to be held in the Church.

Bishop Patrick

5th November at 7.00 pm - Mass to bless the work that has been done at Holy Souls.

Pope Francis - 'Tweet of the Week':

'We pray for the sick who are abandoned and left to die. A society is human if it protects life, every life, from its beginning to its natural end, without choosing who is worthy to live or who is not. Doctors should serve life, not take it away.'
