Peoples Ponderings

Last weekend it was announced that I would be leaving Scunthorpe and Crowle in mid-September, with Canon Geoffrey and Fr Liam looking after the parishes in Scunthorpe, Crowle and Gainsborough. Since that announcement, I have started to pack things up and move some items down to Burton upon Trent. I realised that I had not actually unpacked everything from my move from Derby, which highlights how quick of a turn around this has been or how bad I am at unpacking! In some ways I only feel like I am getting going in the parishes and the time has already come to an end but my promise of obedience on my ordination day, meant that I had to be ready to move at any time, even when unexpected.

I ask that you keep me and Canon Geoffrey in your prayers as we go through the stress of moving to a new parish and for Fr Liam as he prepares to take up his first appointment as a priest. You have been sent a good team of priests who will come with many gifts and talents, and who I am sure you will warmly welcome, just as you did when I came two years ago.
