Pope Francis 'Tweet of the Week':

'We face this choice many times in our lives: do I accept the Lord's invitation or close myself off in my interests, in my smallness? Let us ask the Lord for the grace always to accept the invitation to His feast, which is free.'

Please pray for:

Kathleen Hunt, Ben Pais, Bridget Moorhouse, Corigas Kurteikis and all those who have died recently, may they rest in peace; for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound. The Pope's Prayer Intention for November 2019. The Canon's Comments

This weekend's Gospel reminds us clearly that God is the God of living and not the dead. This weekend in this country and in others throughout the world we mark Remembrance Weekend and the words that spring immediately to my mind are those which are recited at every Remembrance Day Service and at every Cenotaph:

Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.*

These words remind us of the necessity for us to remember those, military and civilian, who have given their lives for the sake of others. Each time we celebrate mass we remember also the One who gave His life that we may have eternal life. This weekend as we remember those who have died, let us also remember why Our Lord died and may this inspire us to work continually for peace, justice and harmony in our communities. Canon Geoffrey

November. During November we particularly remember those members of our families, friends and former parishioners who have died. Next Friday 15th at 6.30 pm there will be a Mass to remember those who have died this past year in our four parishes, and for those who still feel the loss of a beloved one, no matter how long ago it has been since they died. Should you wish a name(s) to be mentioned at this Mass, please email Holy Souls' Parish at holysouls@btinternet.com or hand their name(s) to either Canon Geoffrey or Fr Liam.

Thank You '1'. Thank you to all who came along on Tuesday evening for the Mass with Bishop Patrick, presentation to Fr Neil and the presentation of the Diocesan Medal to Jeff Garrity from St Norbert's, for the work he undertook painting the Sanctuary of Holy Souls'. It was good to see representation from all four parishes. Sincere thanks to all from Holy Souls who have worked so hard over the past weeks to ensure that the Church and grounds were at their best. There is still plenty to do therefore, more helpers are required. If you can assist in any way, please contact Francis Wattam on 07514 549617. Thank you also those who contributed in any way to the Liturgy and the splendid reception afterwards!

Canon Geoffrey

Thank You '2'. I'd like to thank everyone for their kind gift and good wishes. It was lovely to see some familiar faces on Tuesday night and to see the work that has been done at Holy Souls. Be assured of prayers. Fr Neil

Advent Preparation. In preparation for Advent and Christmas, James Longden will be leading a choir practice each Sunday morning after the 9.00 am Sunday morning Mass; please do support this initiative. To assist the singing at any of our Liturgies is an important ministry for any parish community. Surely, there are least six or more members of the 9.00 am congregation who could spare a little time for this? Canon Geoffrey

Interfaith Week. For interfaith week, Bishop Patrick McKinney is joined by people from different faiths to discuss how (and why!) they feel called to make the world a better place. The event will be held at St Martins House, Leicester, LE1 5PZ, on 12th November 2019, 7.30 pm start. This is a free event but registration is essential - <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/will-faiths-save-the-world-paneldiscussion-with-bishop-patrick-mckinney-tickets-75999425327>, or e-mail Katharina.Smith-Muller @cbcew.org.uk.
