Pope Francis 'Tweet of the Week'

We are called to be instruments of God our Father, so that our planet might be what He dreamed of when he created it and correspond with his plan for peace, beauty and fullness.

Please pray for:

all those who have died recently, may they rest in peace; for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound.

The Pope's Prayer Intention for September 2020:

Universal Prayer Intention - Respect for the Planet's Resources. We pray that the planet's resources will not be plundered, but shared in a just and respectful manner.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection: Matthew 21:28-32

Matthew loves giving parables of Jesus contrasting "goodies" and "baddies" like these two contrasting sons. Matthew's parables put everything in black-and-white terms with no shades of grey (wise and foolish wedding-attendants, sheep, and goats). Luke uses a different kind of parable in which characters – just like us – often do the right things for the wrong reason. The sayings of Jesus were handed down by word of mouth for some years before being written down. Did the straightforward contrast in Matthew develop into Luke's parable of the Prodigal Son? Both times the "goodie" son ends up bad, and the "baddie" son ends up good, but in Luke's version both changes of mind are motivated and there is great emphasis on the son's repentance and the father's overwhelming joy at getting him back. The lesson in Matthew's story is given also by Jesus' word in the Sermon on the Mount, "It is not to anyone who says to me 'Lord, Lord' who will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but the person who does the will of my Father In Heaven". It is no use simply saying that Christ is our "Lord", we must express it in our behaviour. (HW)

+++ Polite Reminder +++

Recently a number of people have been "turning up" to attend Sunday Mass without prior booking. YOU NEED TO BOOK A PLACE IN ADVANCE for the weekend Masses otherwise you risk being turned away. It is only the weekday Masses where you can currently attend without booking, although this is being kept under review.

Please stay at home if you, or someone in your household, displays symptoms of COVID19

Message from Canon Geoffrey

As you are aware masses have recommenced at St Thomas', Gainsborough, and St Norbert's, Crowle. From the first weekend of October, there will once again be a Sunday Mass at St Norbert's at 9.00 am, this means however, that the 9.00 am Mass at St Bernadette's on Sunday mornings will no longer be celebrated. In due course there will be a 11.15 am Mass at St Thomas', Gainsborough, on a Sunday morning; this will mean that the 11.00 am Mass at Holy Souls' will no longer be celebrated. While the Sunday obligation continues to be suspended may I strongly encourage all who can to attend one of the weekday masses to leave space for those who have weekday work commitments etc, to attend a weekend Mass. Please note that from the first weekend of October the Sunday evening Masses will be celebrated at 6.30pm.

How to book a seat at a weekend Mass

Parishioners can now book seats at weekend Masses at St Bernadette's Church and Holy Souls' Church through this Diocese of Nottingham website: <https://massbooking.uk> After you have logged in you can view all the weekend mass services scheduled at each Church and the availability of seats. Please note: the full schedule is available each Monday for the following weekend's Masses although some services on Saturdays are available to book from the preceding Sunday. Family pews and individual seats can be booked and you can receive immediate confirmation of the booking by email or by viewing your booking history. If needs be you can still book your seats from Tuesday onwards by emailing St Bernadette's Office at: stbernadettesashby@gmail.com or by telephoning St Bernadette's Presbytery on 01724 844895 between 11am – 1pm. Your request will be logged on the <https://massbooking.uk> website, subject to the availability of seats, and you will be notified to confirm your reservation or, if the Mass is fully booked, details of the availability of seats at other masses will be provided. Please do not hesitate to contact St Bernadette's if you are having difficulties making your reservations online.

Banking Details for our Parishes
