Father Matthew's Weekly Catechism

The importance of praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament.

Now that we are coming out of lockdown we are privileged once gain to have exposition of the Blessed Sacrament after the 10.00 am Mass at Holy Souls on Saturdays. At the same time there is also the opportunity for confession for an hour until exposition ends at 11.30 am.

Praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament is one of my favourite forms of prayer. It allows us peace and quiet to be alone with Jesus Christ truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. During exposition we try to keep the church as quiet and still as possible, and even to say our prayers in the silence of our hearts.

St Teresa of Avila, the great Doctor of the Church, the expert on prayer, teaches us that when we take the trouble alone and be still with God, whether in front of the Blessed Sacrament or not, then if we persevere in this form of prayer we will be given a very special gift. This is the gift she calls "the prayer of quiet". This will happen automatically, without any effort on our part.

At first, we will speak to God as a friend telling him what is on our mind, what our concerns are. Then gradually our prayer will open out from the words on our minds and in our hearts to a prayer beyond words, where God's heart speaks to our heart. This is the precious gift of the prayer of quiet. It will make all the difference to our lives.

This is explained wonderfully in a story of the life of the Cure of Ars, St John Vianney. In his parish there was an old man who he noticed coming into the church every day for an hour after he had finished all his work in the fields. The labourer would sit in silence for an hour or more in the dark church before going home. Fr Vianney asked him what he was doing in the church for so long day after day. The man simply pointed to the tabernacle and said, "He looks at me and I look at him." St John Vianney thus received a lesson in contemplation from a man who could neither read nor write.

In your charity please pray for Alfonso Pagliaro and all who have died recently, may they rest in peace.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them.

We remember all those who are in hospital or are having treatment, those whose treatment has been cancelled or postponed and those who are in nursing homes or being cared for at home.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
 I believe that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament,
 I love You above all things and I desire You in my soul,
 Since I now cannot receive You sacramentally,
 come at least spiritually into my heart,
 I embrace you and unite myself to you;
 Permit not that I should ever be separated from You.
 Amen.

Episode 2 - A Father's Heart
A Podcast for Catholic Dads

The second episode of the Diocese of Nottingham's Podcast for the Year of St Joseph was published on Friday 30th April. In this episode guests Maziano and Merwyn (from Sacred Heart Parish in Leicester) share their thoughts on St Joseph being 'An Obedient Father' and how we can respond to the will of God in our lives. You can download it from your normal podcast provider or listen online by going to www.dioceseofnottingham.uk/podcasts
