Sts Perpetua and Felicity - 7th March

These two saints faced martyrdom hand in hand at Carthage in North Africa during the persecution of the Roman Emperor Septimus Severus, dying in about the year 202AD. The account of their deaths was probably written by Tertullian, and was read publicly in the North African churches in the fourth century. Perpetua was 22 years of age at her martyrdom. She was the daughter of a pagan nobleman, and the mother of an infant still in swaddling clothes. Felicity, a slave, gave birth prematurely to a child whilst in prison. Perpetua and Felicity were catechumens and were imprisoned along with three other catechumens and their teacher, Satorus. All five were baptized in prison prior to their martyrdoms in the amphitheater. As Felicity was giving birth, a prison guard begged her to avoid death for the sake of her unborn child. She replied, "Today it is I who suffer in giving birth, but then it will be Another who will suffer in me, because I shall suffer for Him."

In your charity please pray for

Seamus Jackson and all who have died recently, may they rest in peace.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them. We remember all those who are in hospital or are having treatment, those whose treatment has been cancelled or postponed and those who are in nursing homes or being cared for at home.
