Pope Francis - Tweet of the Week

'Lent is a favourable time to seek out – and not to avoid – those in need; to reach out – and not to ignore – those who need a sympathetic ear and a good word; to visit – and not to abandon – those who are lonely.'

The Annunciation

On today's feast the Church celebrates the mystery of the Incarnation and, at the same time, the vocation of Our Lady. It was here faithful response to the angel's message, her fiat, that began the work of Redemption.

In the oldest Christian calendars this solemnity is referred to as a feast of the Lord. Nevertheless, the texts do make special reference to Our Lady. For many centuries this has been considered as a Marian feast. The Church has traditionally held that there is a close connection between Eve, the mother of mankind, and Mary, the new Eve, the Mother of redeemed humanity.

This feast is celebrated on March 25th, which is nine months away from Christmas, roughly the time that Mary would have conceived the Messiah. There is also an ancient tradition that March 25th, the vernal equinox, was the date of the creation of the world; the date of the commencement of Redemption (that is today's feast); and also the date of the conclusion of Redemption, the death of Christ.

Be that as it may, today when the Blessed Virgin said Yes, freely, to the plans revealed to her by God, Jesus the divine Word assumed a human nature: a rational soul and a body. Jesus is a man and the true son of Mary, whilst at the same time being true God. The greatest praise we can address to Mary is to call her by her supreme title "Mother of God". This title reminds us of her great dignity, and her great obedience to the will of God.

In your charity please pray for all who have died recently, may they rest in peace. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them. We remember all those who are in hospital or are having treatment, those whose treatment has been cancelled or postponed and those who are in nursing homes or being cared for at home.

Second Collection for Ukraine

Message from Fr Matthew: "On each of the four Sundays between now and Palm Sunday a second collection will be taken for the relief of Ukrainian refugees. The funds will be given to CAFOD, which has a sister charity, Caritas Internationalis, working within the war zone, and the bordering countries. The proceeds of the collections will assist with food, water, shelter and medical supplies for the three million people who have now been displaced by this terrible war. In the middle of winter suddenly they find themselves without anything, even the basic essentials. I have decided that we will have four collections because this is a situation which has been unprecedented in Europe since World War II. Envelopes are on order and will follow soon. Please think of how fortunate we are in this country and give as generously as you can."

Humber Bridge Walk – Mother's Day

One of our parishioners – Grazyna – is raising funds to help mothers, and mothers to be, who have been affected by the war in Ukraine. She will be walking the Humber Bridge circular trail (4 Miles) on 27th March. All funds raised will be donated to a charity in Gdansk, Poland, "SOS Jestem w Ciazzy". The charity works with women from all walks of life who are pregnant or are new mothers and are experiencing problems associated with their situation. Recently due to the war, they have had a large influx of Ukrainian women who require help and support. To donate, please visit <http://www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/grazyna-anelay>
