The Return of the Sunday Obligation

The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holydays has now been reinstated by the Bishop's Conference of England and Wales. However, this has to be understood correctly, because God never asks us to do something which is impossible or unwise. It has always been the case that we should attend Mass on these days unless prevented by a serious reason. If there is a serious reason why we cannot attend Mass on Sundays and Holydays, then the obligation no longer applies. Examples of a serious reason might be such things as personal illness, or vulnerability to infection; work commitments; lack of transport especially if one lives a long way from a Catholic church; family obligations such as the care of children. This particular commandment of the Church has always been tempered by reasonableness. It should be understood as being an obligation to attend when this is reasonably possible. It is also worth pointing out that the real reason we should attend Mass is not under a sense of obligation but because we want to out of love for God and the Sacraments. If you have any questions, please feel free to discuss this either with me or Fr Lim.

In your charity please pray for John Myers and all who have died recently, may they rest in peace. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them. We remember all those who are in hospital or are having treatment, those whose treatment has been cancelled or postponed and those who are in nursing homes or being cared for.

First Holy Communion Candidates

Please remember in your prayers the candidates, and families, as they prepare for their First Holy Communion at Holy Souls' and at St Bernadette's.

Synod Prayer

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
As we gather together in Your name.
With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.
We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.
Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
All this we ask of You,
who are work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer Intention for June 2022

For families. We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives.

"Tweet" of the Week

Jesus summarized his commandments in a single one: "Love one another as I have loved you" (Jn. 15:12). To love like Christ loves means to put yourself at the service of your brothers and sisters, especially those in greatest need, as we are and with what we have.
