Canon Matthew's Catechism - The fruits of Holy Communion

In paragraph 1390 of the Catechism, we read, " Since Christ is sacramentally present under each of the species, communion under the species of bread alone makes it possible to receive all the fruit of Eucharistic grace. For pastoral reasons this manner of receiving communion has been legitimately established as the most common form in the Latin rite." In other words, we lack nothing if we receive Holy Communion under the form of bread alone, because we receive the whole Christ. Having consulted people about the option of returning to the practice of communion under both kinds, I have decided to keep to the practice of receiving under the form of bread alone for practical reasons for the time being at least, and thereby to uphold the normative practice of the Latin Rite to which most Catholics in these church communities belong. What are the fruits of receiving Holy Communion? The main fruit of receiving Holy Communion is an intimate union with Jesus Christ, who said "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him." (Jn. 6:56). When we receive Holy Communion we must remember we are receiving none other than the flesh of the risen Christ. Just as bodily food strengthens us physically and gives us health, so this spiritual food preserves and increases the life of grace we received at baptism.

In your charity please pray for

Kathleen Ramsbottom and all who have died recently, may they rest in peace.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them. We remember all those who are in hospital or are having treatment, those whose treatment has been cancelled or postponed and those who are in nursing homes or being cared for.

A message from Bishop Patrick

"Our vision for the Diocese of Nottingham is to become a more outward-looking missionary Catholic community. We are currently reorganising our parish and deanery structures, and to ensure we are supported in mission-focused initiatives the Diocese has launched a Mission Enabling Programme. We must also develop a financial plan, one that is well informed and meets our needs. Therefore after Easter we are commencing a consultative phase, with professional support, to gather opinions from parishioners about our funding strategies. If you are asked please consider giving your views, through a one-to-one conversation or an at-Mass survey. Please also pray for our mission and for this journey of discernment, that we can share the love and message of Christ more widely."
