Pope Francis - Tweet of the Week

'With sorrow, I learned that blood has been poured out again in the Holy Land. I hope that the Israeli and Palestinian leaders can resume direct dialogue to bring an end to the spiral of violence and open paths of reconciliation and peace.'

The Pope's Prayer Intention for July 2023

For a Eucharistic life. We pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a very deep way and opening to the encounter with God and all their brothers and sisters.

Canon Matthew's Catechism

Why did God make us?

We are here, according to the Penny Catechism, "To know God love in and serve Him, in this life, and to be happy with Him forever in the next."

To be a human being means that we have come ultimately from God, and to one day return to Him. Our origins go back further than our human mother and father. God is waiting for us in our true home which is in heaven. Meanwhile we live here on earth, and sometimes we feel very close to God, so much so that His presence is tangible. At other times we feel nothing but emptiness, due to the sufferings of life. This is to be expected as part of life.

It is the Christian belief that God the Father, who is the source of all things, sent us His Son, Jesus Christ "the way the truth and the life" (Jn. 14.6) to lead us to the Father. When a human being loves, their heart overflows, and they would like to share their joy with others. In this respect we are like God, who out of the overflowing love from His heart created us, so that they we could share in His existence and eternal joy.

In your charity please pray for

David Thomas Lyons and all who have died recently, may they rest in peace. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them. We remember all those who are in hospital or are having treatment, those whose treatment has been cancelled or postponed and those who are in nursing homes or being cared for.

Plenary Indulgence

The Apostolic Penitentiary has announced that Pope Francis has granted a Plenary Indulgence for the faithful who take part in the Third World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly on Sunday 23rd July under the theme "His mercy is from age to age" (Luke 1:50). Conditions for gaining the plenary indulgence are:

- the plenary indulgence will be granted to grandparents, the elderly, and all faithful who participate in the solemn celebration presided over by the Pope in St. Peter's Basilica, as well as to all those who attend Mass in various parts of the world.
- the indulgence is subject to the usual conditions of sacramental Confession, reception of the Eucharist, and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father.

A plenary indulgence offers remission of the temporal punishment due to sins already forgiven, which can be applied to oneself or to the souls in Purgatory.

The Apostolic Penitentiary extends the same Plenary Indulgence to those who dedicate significant time to visit - either in-person or by virtual means of communication - their elderly brothers and sisters who are in need or facing difficulties, such as the sick, abandoned, and those with disabilities.

For people who are unable to leave their homes due to serious reasons, spiritual participation in Mass celebrated for the World Day through prayer, offering their sufferings, and joining in the broadcasts of the Pope's various celebrations will also grant them the opportunity to obtain a plenary indulgence. However, the indulgence requires that the faithful maintain detachment from sin and intend to fulfil the three usual conditions as soon as possible.
