Pope Francis - Tweet of the Week

On World Alzheimers Day, let us pray together for all those who suffer from this disease, for their families and for those who lovingly care for them.

The Pope's Prayer Intention for September 2023

For people living on the margins
We pray for those persons living on the margins of society, in inhumane life conditions; may they not be overlooked by institutions and never considered of lesser importance.

Canon's Catechism

Can the Church err in matters of faith?

The major aim of Jesus' teaching ministry was to lay the necessary foundations for the establishment of the Catholic Church. To this end he spent many hours teaching and preparing his disciples, both in private and in public to be the future leaders of the Church he would establish. He also gave them certain assurances that they would be guided in their leadership role by the Holy Spirit. He said "When the Spirit of truth comes, he will lead you into all truth." (John 16: 13). And also "I will send you the Spirit of truth. When this Helper has come from the Father, he will be my witness, and you too will be my witnesses, for you have been with me from the beginning." These assurances were given in a particular way to the future apostles, because of their teaching role, and not to all Jesus' followers. It is true that individual Church leaders, even perhaps a bishop or even a pope, and other individual members of the Church can stray from the truth, but the Church as a whole has been given certain guarantees that the Holy Spirit will not allow it to fall into error in matters of faith or morals. St Timothy in his first letter, which is part of the inspired word of God, refers to the Church as "The pillar and foundation of the truth." (1 Tim. 3:15) Therefore, holy Scripture itself tells us where the truth is to be found - in the Church. This same Church today, guided by the Holy Spirit, teaches the truth of Christ. We can therefore turn to the Catholic Church for guidance in what we must believe, and how we must live. In doing so, we place our faith, not in mere human beings, but in the divine guidance of the Holy Spirit.

In your charity please pray for all who have died recently, may they rest in peace. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them. We remember all those who are in hospital or are having treatment, those whose treatment has been cancelled or postponed and those who are in nursing homes or being cared for.
