TWENTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE WORD

Year B • 25 August 2024 • Psalter Week 1

TO STAY
OR NOT
TO STAY
JOHN 6:60-69

In today's first reading, Joshua puts a direct challenge to the people of Israel. Make up your minds once and for all, he says: "If you will not serve the Lord, choose this day whom you will serve."

In today's Gospel, Jesus puts a similar direct challenge to his followers. Because of his teaching about the Living Bread, many of his disciples gave up on him and no longer followed him. His teaching was too difficult to live by, too radical, too hard to stomach.

Rejection is always painful. Jesus must have worried that even his closest friends would abandon him too. So he asks the twelve, "Do you also wish to go away?"

It's a question Jesus puts directly to each of us also: Do you wish to go away too? Or do you wish to stay? Either way, why? Whatever answer we give will have tremendous implications for us because it will shape the direction of our lives.

After Joshua challenges the Israelites, they give a clear unequivocal answer: "There is no way that we will forsake the Lord to serve other gods. Look at all that God has done for us." And after Jesus challenges the twelve, Simon Peter takes it on himself to give a clear unequivocal answer on behalf of his colleagues: "Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God."

Today Jesus asks each of us that same question. He is not looking for a half-hearted, equivocal answer. He wants to know up front where each of us stands. ■

PRAY

Pray for those you know who no longer go to church or no longer believe in God. Pray also for those who introduced you to the faith and brought you up in it.

LEARN

Each Christian is called to say a personal "yes" to Jesus.

Following Jesus means having to make hard choices.

DO

We know the statistics. We know that many people have fallen away from the practice of the faith or have given up on the Church entirely, maybe even members of our own families. Today's Gospel offers us an opportunity to think about why we choose to stay when so many others have not. Think of the reasons why your faith is so important to you.

SAY

"Lord, to whom shall I go? You have the message of eternal life."

REFLECT

For many people, what they believe is often second-hand. It's what their parents or grandparents have told them. This is especially true of religion. We are nearly all conscripts, not volunteers. Our religious beliefs and practices were handed down to us like clothes handed down from an older brother or sister. The result is that we may never fully own our faith. We may never answer truthfully for ourselves the two important questions Jesus put to his followers: "Who do you say that I am?" and the question in today's Gospel, "Do you wish to go away too?"

A second-hand faith will not survive hard times - a crippling illness to ourselves or a loved one, the death of a beloved spouse, a great injustice inflicted by a friend, a cruel betrayal, church scandals. It may not even survive a silly row with a priest.

So it is important that I "own" my faith, that I believe, not because my parents and teachers taught me to believe and to go to church, but because I personally want to do these things. This kind of faith is not primarily the acceptance of a set of beliefs but a personal commitment to the person of Jesus. It's being able to say with Peter, boldly and with complete conviction: "You are the Holy One of God. You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God. To whom else could we go?" ■

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Turn your ear, O Lord, and answer me;
save the servant who trusts in you, my God.
Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

COLLECT

O God, who cause the minds of the faithful to unite in a single purpose, grant your people to love what you command and to desire what you promise, that, amid the uncertainties of this world,
our hearts may be fixed on that place where true gladness is found.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

FIRST READING

Joshua 24:1-2, 15-18

A reading from the book of Joshua.
Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel together at Shechem; then he called the elders, leaders, judges and scribes of Israel, and they presented themselves before God. Then Joshua said to all the people, "If you will not serve the Lord, choose today whom you wish to serve, whether the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are now living. As for me and my House, we will serve the Lord."

The people answered, "We have no intention of deserting the Lord and serving other gods!
Was it not the Lord our God who brought us and our ancestors out of the land of Egypt, the house of slavery, who worked those great wonders before our eyes and preserved us all along the way we travelled and among all the peoples through whom we journeyed? We too will serve the Lord, for he is our God."

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalms 33:2-3, 16-23

Response:

Taste and see that the Lord is good.

- I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad. (R.)

- The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth.
The Lord turns his eyes to the just and his ears to their appeal. (R.)
- They call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress.
The Lord is close to the broken-hearted;
those whose spirit is crushed he will save.
(R.)
- Many are the trials of the just man but from them all the Lord will rescue him.
He will keep guard over all his bones, not one of his bones shall be broken. (R.)
- Evil brings death to the wicked;
those who hate the good are doomed.
The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. (R.)

SECOND READING

Ephesians 5:21-32

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians.
Give way to one another in obedience to Christ.
Wives should regard their husbands as they regard the Lord, since as Christ is head of the Church and saves the whole body, so is a husband the head of his wife; and as the Church submits to Christ, so should wives to their husbands, in everything. Husbands should love their wives just as Christ loved the Church and sacrificed himself for her to make her holy. He made her clean by washing her in water with a form of words, so that when he took her to himself she would be glorious, with no speck or wrinkle or anything like that, but holy and faultless. In the same way, husbands must love their wives as they love their own bodies; for a man to love his wife is for him to love himself.
A man never hates his own body, but he feeds it and looks after it; and that is the way Christ treats the Church, because it is his body – and we are its living parts. For this reason, a man must leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one body.
This mystery has many implications; but I am saying it applies to Christ and the Church.
The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Your words are spirit, Lord,
and they are life;
you have the message of eternal life. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 6:60-69

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.
After hearing his doctrine many of the followers of Jesus said, "This is intolerable language. How could anyone accept it?" Jesus was aware that his followers were complaining about it and said, "Does this upset you? What if you should see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before?
"It is the spirit that gives life,
the flesh has nothing to offer.
The words I have spoken to you are spirit
and they are life.
"But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the outset those who did not believe, and who it was that would betray him. He went on, "This is why I told you that no one could come to me unless the Father allows him." After this, many of his disciples left him and stopped going with him.

Then Jesus said to the Twelve, "What about you, do you want to go away too?" Simon Peter answered, "Lord, who shall we go to? You have the message of eternal life, and we believe; we know that you are the Holy One of God."
The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (all bow during the next three lines)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

O Lord, who gained for yourself a people by adoption
through the one sacrifice offered once for all, bestow graciously on us, we pray,
the gifts of unity and peace in your Church.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The earth is replete with the fruits of your work, O Lord;
you bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer the heart.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Complete within us, O Lord, we pray, the healing work of your mercy and graciously perfect and sustain us, so that in all things we may please you.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
