Pope Francis - Thought of the Week

'All of us sometimes find ourselves, in life, in situations beyond our strength and ask ourselves: "How can I cope with this situation?". It helps, in such cases, to remember that "With God nothing will be impossible" (Lk 1:37). And if we believe this, we will perform miracles.'

The Pope's Prayer Intention for August 2024

For Political Leaders

Pope Francis invites prayers "so that political leaders may serve their people, work for comprehensive human development and the common good, attending to those who have lost their jobs and prioritizing the poorest."

A reflection from Pope Francis for the Year of Prayer Twentieth Sunday of the Year

In today's gospel Jesus describes himself as the "living bread" which takes us into the Paschal Mystery of Jesus' love for us. We again reflect on Pope Francis' catechesis on the paschal prayer of Jesus, which we looked at in Holy Week. This catechesis was first given on Wednesday, 16 June 2021.

In your charity please pray for all who have died recently, may they rest in peace.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
 Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them.

The Importance of Sundays

'The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants) or dispensed by their own pastor. On Sundays [...] the faithful are to refrain from engaging in work or activities that hinder the worship owed to God, the joy proper to the Lord's Day, the performance of the works of mercy, and the appropriate relaxation of mind and body. Family needs or important social service can legitimately excuse from the obligation of Sunday rest. [...] The charity of truth seeks holy leisure – the necessity of charity accepts just work.' [Taken from Canon Andrew's bulletin 11/08/24]

Alpha is coming to Brigg - September 2024

What is Alpha? Alpha is a multi-week course exploring the basics of the Christian faith. Each session looks at a different question around faith and the talks are designed to create conversation in small groups afterwards. During the evening, a meal is shared, followed by a video we watch together, and then finally a discussion. Participants are free to join in, or just listen - it's entirely up to you! Please ring the parish office on 01652 652221 or email briggandbartonrc@dioceseofnottingham.uk to register. All welcome.

Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May we continue to support and encourage vocations in our families and in our Parish Community.

Amen.
