Canon Matthew's Catechism on Prayer:

The Our Father

When we say "who art in heaven" this expression does not mean a place, but a way of being. It does not mean that God is in some distant place, but that he is majestic, and transcends everything. "Heaven could also be those who bear the image of the heavenly realm, and in whom God dwells and tarries." (St. Cyril of Jerusalem).

Quote of the Week

"Sexual sins tend to cause more of an outcry from some people. But they are really not the most serious. They are human sins, of the flesh. The most serious, on the contrary, are the sins that have more "angelicity", that dress themselves in another guise: pride, hatred, falsehood, fraud, abuse of power. Even Satan, as Paul writes in the Second Letter to the Corinthians, "masquerades as an angel of light." (11.14).

Pope Francis, Hope, The Autobiography

In your charity please pray for Danuta Clukaj and all who have died recently, may they rest in peace. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them.

We pray for the Church during this time of sede vacante

We pray, almighty God,
that your Church may always remain that holy people, formed as one by the unity of Father, Son and Holy Spirit, which manifests to the world that Sacrament of your holiness and unity,
and leads it to the perfection of your charity.
Grant to your Church, we pray,
a new Holy Father, filled with your Holy Spirit, even as we mourn the passing of Pope Francis;
that your Church may continue steadfast in faith in confessing your name to the world.
Through Christ our Lord,
Amen.
