

Readings for 3rd Sunday of Advent (Year B)

First Reading

Isaiah 61:1-2.10-11

The spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for the Lord has anointed me. He has sent me to bring good news to the poor, to bind up hearts that are broken; to proclaim liberty to captives, freedom to those in prison; to proclaim a year of favour from the Lord. I exult for joy in the Lord, my soul rejoices in my God, for he has clothed me in the garments of salvation, he has wrapped me in the cloak of integrity, like a bridegroom wearing his wreath, like a bride adorned in her jewels. For as the earth makes fresh things grow, as a garden makes seeds spring up, so will the Lord make both integrity and praise spring up in the sight of the nations. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: Luke 1:46-50.53-54

[R]: My soul rejoices in my God.

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 5:16-24

Be happy at all times; pray constantly; and for all things give thanks to God, because this is what God expects you to do in Christ Jesus. Never try to suppress the Spirit or treat the gift of prophecy with contempt; think before you do anything - hold on to what is good and avoid every form of evil. May the God of peace make you perfect and holy; and may you all be kept safe and blameless, spirit, soul and body, for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. God has called you and he will not fail you. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! The spirit of the Lord has been given to me. He has sent me to bring good news to the poor. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

John 1:6-8.19-28

A man came, sent by God. His name was John. He came as a witness, as a witness to speak for the light, so that everyone might believe through him. He was not the light, only a witness to speak for the light. This is how John appeared as a witness. When the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, 'Who are you?' he not only declared, but he declared quite openly, 'I am not the Christ.' 'Well then,' they asked, 'are you Elijah?' 'I am not,' he said. 'Are you the Prophet?' He answered, 'No.' So they said to him, 'Who are you? We must take back an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself?' So John said, 'I am, as Isaiah prophesied: a voice that cries in the wilderness: Make a straight way for the Lord.' Now these men had been sent by the Pharisees, and they put this further question to him, 'Why are you baptising if you are not the Christ, and not Elijah, and not the prophet?' John replied, 'I baptise with water; but there stands among you - unknown to you - the one who is coming after me; and I am not fit to undo his sandal-strap.' This happened at Bethany, on the far side of the Jordan, where John was baptising. The Gospel of the Lord.

Bishop's Certificate in Catechesis

A new course for existing Parish Catechists, or those who would like to learn more about being one, will take place on Wednesday evenings in Lincoln from January, or on Saturdays in Spalding from April. For further details see poster. If you are interested in doing this course please speak to Fr Eddy.

Carol Service

Post Confirmation Retreat at The Briars

Thanks to those who have already committed to this; however we still need more people to make this viable. If we do not have names and deposits by the end of this week then we will have to cancel. Please see Fr Eddy after Mass this weekend or at St Bede's School on Monday morning.

Second Collection

Will be taken up this weekend for the New and Poor Parishes Fund. A second collection will be taken up at next weekend for the Christmas Flowers.

Christmas Mailing

Many households should have received a letter from Fr Eddy this week giving details of our Christmas Mass times. If you have not received such a letter you can pick one up from the back of Church; it also includes a census form to help update our parish database. Also available at the back of Church are postcards with Christmas Mass times. Please feel free to take as many as you can distribute to family, friends and neighbours.

The Forge Project

A local Charity helping vulnerable people in our town. Can we help provide them with any of the following items: Bags of sugar, canned meat, toilet rolls, washing up liquid, black bin bags. Any unwanted sleeping bags, jumpers, jeans; they will put them to good use? Also, how about wrapping up a small gift (chocolate, socks, toiletries) that can be given to someone on Christmas Day. We will have a box at the back of Church for your donations.

Home from University

If you know of parishioners who will be home from university over the Christmas vacation please let Fr Eddy have their name and address as he would like to invite them to an informal social gathering early in the new year.

Continuing the Conversation, Planning for the Future

It is now almost two weeks since the Centenary Mass and in another couple of weeks we will have celebrated Christmas. It will then be the time to resume the conversation that we began at our Parish Meeting back in October. I propose that we meet again on Monday 23rd January at 7 pm. We can review the Centenary Mass and Christmas and consider further plans for our Centenary year. We can also look more closely at the document from the Bishop, 'Living Stones'. On Wednesday 25th January there will be an open Deanery Meeting which we are hosting at Holy Souls. This will consider how, as a Deanery, we can respond to 'Living Stones' and how we can work more closely together. I would hope firstly that many parishioners will make an effort to be present on 23rd January, and secondly that from that meeting on the 23rd a group of parishioners can be nominated to represent the parish at the Deanery Meeting on the 25th. I am giving these dates now so that people can enter them into their diaries in good time.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Next week there will be opportunities for Confession as follows:

Tuesday 20th December - 7 pm

Deanery Penitential Service at St Bernadette's.

All Deanery priests will be present.

Wednesday 21st December - 7 to 8 pm

Fr Eddy and Fr Wlodek will be hearing Confessions at Holy Souls

Saturday 24th December.

Normal Saturday morning Confessions (11 am to 12 noon); no Confessions in the afternoon
