

Readings for Sixth Sunday of Year B

First Reading

Leviticus 13:1-2.44-46

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, If a swelling or scab or shiny spot appears on a mans skin, a case of leprosy of the skin is to be suspected. The man must be taken to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests who are his sons. The priest must declare him unclean; he is suffering from leprosy of the head. A man infected with leprosy must wear his clothing torn and his hair disordered; he must shield his upper lip and cry, Unclean, unclean. As long as the disease lasts he must be unclean; and therefore he must live apart: he must live outside the camp.

The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 31:1-2.5.11

[R]: You are my refuge, O Lord; you fill me with the joy of salvation.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 10:31 - 11:1

Whatever you eat, whatever you drink, whatever you do at all, do it for the glory of God. Never do anything offensive to anyone - to Jews or Greeks or to the Church of God; just as I try to be helpful to everyone at all times, not anxious for my own advantage but for the advantage of everybody else, so that they may be saved. Take me for your model, as I take Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus and pleaded on his knees: 'If you want to' he said 'you can cure me.' Feeling sorry for him, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him. 'Of course I want to!' he said. 'Be cured!' And the leprosy left him at once and he was cured. Jesus immediately sent him away and sternly ordered him, 'Mind you say nothing to anyone, but go and show yourself to the priest, and make the offering for your healing prescribed by Moses as evidence of your recovery.' The man went away, but then started talking about it freely and telling the story everywhere, so that Jesus could no longer go openly into any town, but had to stay outside in places where nobody lived. Even so, people from all around would come to him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Baptism of Children

If you have any questions about the baptism of children please speak to Fr Eddy or Deacon Bernard. Before agreeing to a Baptism there must be a well founded hope that the child will be brought up in the Catholic faith. This is best demonstrated by the faithful participation of the parents in Sunday Mass. If you live outside the parish you will also need the permission of your own Parish Priest.

New TV Series about the Catholic Church in England

The Catholic church is set to feature in a new series of three films to be shown on BBC 4 Television in February and March 2012. Each of the three films – one about men, one about women, one about children – is an intimate portrait of a different Catholic world, revealing Catholicism to be a rich and complex identity and observing how this identity shapes people’s lives. The series starts on Thursday 23rd February, at 9.00 pm, with 'Priests' filmed over six months and an intimate behind-the-scenes portrait of Allen Hall seminary in London.

Phone Number for Hall

The dedicated phone number for any hall bookings/enquiries is 07542 715929.

Street Pastors

Every Saturday night a group of four or so ‘street pastors’ depart ‘The Well’ bookshop on Frodingham Road and spend the next six hours in and around Britannia Corner offering practical help and support to any who require it. Other members of the team remain at The Well as a prayer support. Different local clergy lead the team in prayer at the beginning of the night and this weekend it is Fr Eddy’s turn to do this. Perhaps as a parish we can make this a regular intention of our prayers, praying for the safety and well-being of all who live in our neighbourhood and all those who socialise there.
