

Readings for Seventh Sunday of Year B

First Reading

1 Samuel 26:2.7-9.12-13.22-23

Thus says the Lord: o need to recall the past, no need to think about what was done before. See, I am doing a new deed, even now it comes to light; can you not see it? Yes, I am making a road in the wilderness, paths in the wilds. The people I have formed for myself will sing my praises. Jacob, you have not invoked me, you have not troubled yourself, Israel, on my behalf. Instead you have burdened me with your sins, troubled me with your iniquities. I it is, I it is, who must blot out everything and not remember your sins.

The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 40:2-5.13-14

[R]: Heal my soul for I have sinned against you.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 1:18-22

I swear by God's truth, there is no Yes and No about what we say to you. The Son of God, the Christ Jesus that we proclaimed among you - I mean Silvanus and Timothy and I - was never Yes and No: with him it was always Yes, and however many the promises God made, the Yes to them all is in him. That is why it is 'through him' that we answer Amen to the praise of God. Remember it is God himself who assures us all, and you, of our standing in Christ, and has anointed us, marking us with his seal and giving us the pledge, the Spirit, that we carry in our hearts. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! The Word was made flesh and lived among us; to all who did accept him he gave power to become children of God. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 2:1-12

When Jesus returned to Capernaum, word went round that he was back; and so many people collected that there was no room left, even in front of the door. He was preaching the word to them when some people came bringing him a paralytic carried by four men, but as the crowd made it impossible to get the man to him, they stripped the roof over the place where Jesus was; and when they had made an opening, they lowered the stretcher on which the paralytic lay. Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralytic, 'My child, your sins are forgiven.' Now some scribes were sitting there, and they thought to themselves, 'How can this man talk like that? He is blaspheming. Who can forgive sins but God?' Jesus, inwardly aware that this was what they were thinking, said to them, 'Why do you have these thoughts in your hearts? Which of these is easier: to say to the paralytic, "Your sins are forgiven" or to say, "Get up, pick up your stretcher and walk"? But to prove to you that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins,' - he said to the paralytic - 'I order you: get up, pick up your stretcher, and go off home.' And the man got up, picked up his stretcher at once and walked out in front of everyone, so that they were all astounded and praised God saying, 'We have never seen anything like this.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

New TV Series about the Catholic Church in England

The Catholic church is set to feature in a new series of three films to be shown on BBC 4 Television in February and March 2012. Each of the three films – one about men, one about women, one about children – is an intimate portrait of a different Catholic world, revealing Catholicism to be a rich and complex identity and observing how this identity shapes people's lives. The series starts on Thursday 23rd February, at 9.00 pm, with 'Priests' filmed over six months and an intimate behind-the-scenes portrait of Allen Hall seminary in London.

Stations of the Cross

On Friday evenings at 6.30 pm followed by Mass at 7.00pm.

Shrove Tuesday and Ash Wednesday

In this country Shrove Tuesday is often known as Pancake Day. In medieval times people not only gave up meat in Lent, but also all dairy products. Hence the need to use up any eggs, milk, and cream. If you toss your pancakes, try and toss each pancake three times (in honour of the Trinity). Other countries have different traditions. In French this day is called Mardi gras (Fat Tuesday) and in other places it is carnival time (carni-vale farewell to meat). All these traditions are worth keeping, but only if we then go on to recognise the proper purpose of Lent.

Lent begins with Ash Wednesday. It is a day of Fasting and Abstinence. All Catholics aged 14 to 65 who are in good health are asked to abstain from meat and to eat less than usual on that day. It is not a Holyday of Obligation although more people attend Mass on Ash Wednesday than on many Holydays. At Mass (or at other liturgies if there is not Mass) ashes are placed on people's forehead with the words 'remember you are dust and to dust you shall return' or 'repent and believe in the Gospel'. If you receive your ashes in the morning, don't wipe them off straight away, but display them publically throughout the day as a sign of your faith and a reminder to others of the day.
