

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

First Reading

2 Kings 2:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing Elisha, the man of God, bread from the first-fruits, twenty barley loaves and fresh grain in the ear. Give it to the people to eat, Elisha said. But his servant replied, How can I serve this to a hundred men? Give it to the people to eat he insisted for the Lord says this, They will eat and have some left over. He served them; they ate and had some over, as the Lord had said.

The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 144:10-11.15-11

[R]: You open wide your hand, O Lord, and grant our desires.

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:1-6

I, the prisoner in the Lord, implore you to lead a life worthy of your vocation. Bear with one another charitably, in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience. Do all you can to preserve the unity of the Spirit by the peace that binds you together. There is one Body, one Spirit, just as you were all called into one and the same hope when you were called. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, and one God who is Father of all, through all and within all. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life: You have the message of eternal life. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

John 6:1-15

Jesus went off to the other side of the Sea of Galilee - or of Tiberias - and a large crowd followed him, impressed by the signs he gave by curing the sick. Jesus climbed the hillside, and sat down there with his disciples. It was shortly before the Jewish feast of Passover. Looking up, Jesus saw the crowds approaching and said to Philip, 'Where can we buy some bread for these people to eat?' He only said this to test Philip; he himself knew exactly what he was going to do. Philip answered, 'Two hundred denarii would only buy enough to give them a small piece each.' One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said, 'There is a small boy here with five barley loaves and two fish; but what is that between so many?' Jesus said to them, 'Make the people sit down.' There was plenty of grass there, and as many as five thousand men sat down. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and gave them out to all who were sitting ready; he then did the same with the fish, giving out as much as was wanted. When they had eaten enough he said to the disciples, 'Pick up the pieces left over, so that nothing gets wasted.' So they picked them up, and filled twelve hampers with scraps left over from the meal of five barley loaves. The people, seeing this sign that he had given, said, 'This really is the prophet who is to come into the world.' Jesus, who could see they were about to come and take him by force and make him king, escaped back to the hills by himself.

The Gospel of the Lord.

The Mystery of Faith:

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Details of all the above events will be given at the appropriate time, but you may wish to mark your diaries in good time.

Stich and Chat

Stich and Chat takes place in the hall every Wednesday 1.30 pm to 3.30 pm. All welcome.

RCIA

Are you interested in becoming a Catholic or do you know of someone else who might be? The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults programme will begin after the summer holidays and will take place at St Bernadette’s on Monday evenings. This programme will be a joint programme for Holy Souls, St Bernadette’s and perhaps other Deanery parishes. For more information please contact Fr Eddy on his return.

Seasons of Faith

An Ecumenical Day of Reflection led by Fr John Daley IC.

A choice of two dates is available:
Saturday, 15th September 2012 at Holy Trinity Community Centre, Newark, or Saturday, 22nd September 2012 at Sacred heart Convent, Rearsby.
Both days start at 10.00 am with coffee and conclude at 4.00 pm. The cost is £12 for the day which includes a light lunch (soup and roll).
To book a place or for further details please contact Monica Purdue on 0115 993 9235 or email monica.purdue@ntlworld.com

Second Collection Day for Life

This collection will be delayed until after Fr Eddy returns from his holiday.

And finally . . .

These sentences (with all the bloopers) actually appeared in Church bulletins or were announced in church services:

- * “Ladies, don't forget the rummage sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.”
- * Eight new choir robes are currently needed due to the addition of several new members and to the deterioration of some older ones!”
