

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

First Reading

1 Kings 19:4-8

Elijah went into the wilderness, a days journey, and sitting under a furze bush wished he were dead. Lord, he said I have had enough. Take my life: I am no better than my ancestors. Then he lay down and went to sleep. But an angel touched him and said, Get up and eat. He looked round, and there at his head was a scone baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again. But the angel of the Lord came back a second time and touched him and said, Get up and eat, or the journey will be too long for you. So he got up and ate and drank, and strengthened by that food he walked for forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 33:2-9

[R]: Taste and see that the Lord is good.

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:30 - 5:2

Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God who has marked you with his seal for you to be set free when the day comes. Never have grudges against others, or lose your temper, or raise your voice to anybody, or call each other names, or allow any sort of spitefulness. Be friends with one another, and kind, forgiving each other as readily as God forgave you in Christ. Try, then, to imitate God, as children of his that he loves, and follow Christ by loving as he loved you, giving himself up in our place as a fragrant offering and a sacrifice to God. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

John 6:41-51

The Jews were complaining to each other about Jesus, because he had said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' 'Surely this is Jesus son of Joseph' they said. 'We know his father and mother. How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus said in reply, 'Stop complaining to each other. 'No one can come to me unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me, and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets: They will all be taught by God, and to hear the teaching of the Father, and learn from it, is to come to me. Not that anybody has seen the Father, except the one who comes from God: he has seen the Father. I tell you most solemnly, everybody who believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the desert and they are dead; but this is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that a man may eat it and not die. I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

The Mystery of Faith:

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again..

Welcome

Welcome to any visitors this weekend. Please come and join us in the Parish Hall for tea and coffee after the 9.30 am Mass.

Thank you

We extend our thanks to Fr Wojciech who looked after the Parish in Fr Eddy's absence. Fr Wojciech has now returned to Poland but before leaving, expressed his thanks and gratitude for the warmth of welcome shown to him by the people of the Parish.

Sung Latin Mass

On the Feast of the Assumption (Wednesday) there will be a sung Latin Mass at St Peter's, Leicester, at 7.00 pm.

Urgent Appeal

We have a desperate need for people to help clean the Church as numbers have dwindled. We are now relying on the goodwill of two ladies and it is obviously a struggle for them to get it all done. If you are able to give up an hour or two of your time to help out, please contact Mary English as soon as possible or see Fr Eddy.

Stich and Chat

Stich and Chat takes place in the hall every Wednesday 1.30 pm to 3.30 pm. All welcome.
