First Reading

Wisdom 7:7-11

I prayed, and understanding was given me; I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing. I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her silver ranks as mud. I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps. In her company all good things came to me, at her hands riches not to be numbered. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 89:12-17

[R]: Fill us with your love that we may rejoice.

Second Reading

Hebrews 4:12-13

The word of God is something alive and active; it cuts like any double-edged sword but more finely: it can slip through the place where the soul is divided from the spirit, or joints from the marrow; it can judge the secret emotions and thoughts. No created thing can hide from him; everything is uncovered and open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for revealing the mysteries of the kingdom to mere children. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 10:17-30

Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill; You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth. Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God! The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them, 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another, 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said, 'it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God.' Peter took this up. 'What about us?' he asked him. 'We have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'I tell you solemnly, there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, father, children or land for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not be repaid a hundred times over, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and land - not without persecutions - now in this present time and, in the world to come, eternal life.' The Gospel of the Lord.

The Mystery of Faith:

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Deanery Update

At the recent Clergy Deanery Meeting, the priests of the Deanery decided not to proceed, for the time being, with the planned changes to Mass times, but rather to await further developments at Diocesan level in the ‘You are Living Stones’ process. These are expected in February 2013.

Stained Glass Windows

If you look around the Church you will notice stained glass windows to honour the silver jubilee (behind the altar) and the golden jubilee (the rose window) of the Church. Should we not consider leaving a similar permanent reminder of our centenary year? The matter has been discussed at the PFC and the consensus was that this would be a fitting idea. We talked about the possibility of two new windows one depicting St Augustine Webster, and the other depicting Blessed Pope John Paul II. We would like the designs to come from the people of the parish, with a particular desire to involve children/young people. So we invite people to submit ‘sketch designs’ featuring either one of the two people named above. Designs need to observe a proportion of 4 parts vertical to 1 part horizontal and should be submitted by Sunday 4th November. In due course designs would be exhibited and people could vote for the ones they like. These would then be sent to professional stained glass designers who would work with them to prepare a final design.

First Communion

Parents of Year 3 children or older who hope to make their First Holy Communion this academic year are invited to a meeting in the Hall on Thursday 8th November at 7.00pm. This meeting is for parents only and details of how the programme will run and the level of commitment and participation required from children and parents will be explained. The programme is open to all children in the parish of the appropriate age regardless of which school they attend.

Confirmation

Bishop Malcolm will celebrate this Sacrament in June 2013. In line with Diocesan policy those who are already at Secondary school are eligible to be Confirmed. A Confirmation Programme, led by the Reach 4 team from the Briars, will be run jointly for the two Scunthorpe parishes beginning in February 2013. Any young people wishing to be Confirmed please pick up an application form from Fr Eddy in the Sacristy. These must be returned by 1st November 2012. There will be a meeting for parents of potential candidates on Thursday 15th November at 7.30 pm at Holy Souls Hall. At that meeting more information will be given about the programme, and in particular about the level of commitment and participation that will be required.
