

Readings for Easter Sunday

First Reading

Acts 10:34.37-43

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses - we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead - and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.' The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 117:1-2.16-17.22-23.

[R]: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-4

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed - and he is your life - you too will be revealed in all your glory with him. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia! Christ, our passover, has been sacrificed; let us celebrate the feast then in the Lord. Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

John 20:1-9

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.' So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead. The Gospel of the Lord.

The Mystery of Faith: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

Chrism Mass

On Wednesday of Holy Week Frs Eddy and Benedict and Deacon Bernard renewed their ordination promises at the Cathedral in Nottingham in the presence of Bishop Malcolm and their fellow priests and deacons. At least two parishioners from Holy Souls were also present in a packed Cathedral. Bishop Malcolm preached a very interesting homily which addressed many of the issues about the church and in particular about the priesthood that have made the news over the past few weeks. If you would like to read it, it is available on the Diocesan web site (link from our parish web site) or else Fr Eddy can provide you with a copy. The Pope's Chrism Mass homily (on www.vatican.va) is also worth a read, again if you do not have access to the internet Fr Eddy is happy to print a copy for you.

Thanks

to Alan and Kath Kersh for Passover meal which they organised for us recently. A very informative and entertaining evening was had by all present.

Events like this are an important part of parish life, not only do they help raise funds for the parish (this year all proceeds are going towards the cost of the new lighting in the church) but they also are an occasion for people to meet socially and get to know one another better in an informal atmosphere. Please support the Fair in any way that you can by offering to help on a stall (contact Marie Dowse on hall phone), by attending on the day, or by buying some prize draw tickets and encouraging others to do so. The first prize is £100 and there are many other prizes including a £25 meat voucher from Smith's butchers. Donations of prizes are still welcome. Please take tickets home to sell to family, friends, neighbours etc.
