

Readings for 5th Sunday of Eastertide

First Reading

Acts 14:21-27
Paul and Barnabas went back through Lystra and Iconium to Antioch. They put fresh heart into the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in the faith. We all have to experience many hardships they said before we enter the kingdom of God. In each of these churches they appointed elders, and with prayer and fasting they commended them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe. They passed through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. Then after proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia and from there sailed for Antioch, where they had originally been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed. On their arrival they assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the pagans. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 144:8-13

[R]: I will bless your name for ever, O God my King.

Second Reading

Apocalypse 21:1-5
I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; the first heaven and the first earth had disappeared now, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the holy city, and the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, as beautiful as a bride all dressed for her husband. Then I heard a loud voice call from the throne, 'You see this city? Here God lives among men. He will make his home among them; they shall be his people, and he will be their God; his name is God-with-them. He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness. The world of the past has gone.' Then the One sitting on the throne spoke: 'Now I am making the whole of creation new.' The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia. Jesus said: 'I give you a new commandment: love one another, just as I have loved you.' Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

John 13:31-35
When Judas had gone Jesus said: 'Now has the Son of Man been glorified, and in him God has been glorified. If God has been glorified in him, God will in turn glorify him in himself, and will glorify him very soon. My little children, I shall not be with you much longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another; just as I have loved you, you also must love one another. By this love you have for one another, everyone will know that you are my disciples.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

The Mystery of Faith: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

Organ Update

Over the past few months Fr Eddy, Brian Harris, James Longden, and David Lisle have been considering the various options regarding a Church organ. It is our recommendation that we should have a new digital organ to replace our current pipe organ. This proposal will be formally considered at the next PPC meeting and also by the Diocesan Building and Sites Commission. If anyone has any comments they would like to be taken into account, please submit them in writing or by email to Fr Eddy before Tuesday 7th May.
