

Readings for Corpus Christi Year C

First Reading

Genesis 14:18-20
Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing: Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you. And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything. The Word of the Lord.

Psalm: 109:1-4

[R] You are a priest forever, a priest like Melchizedek of old.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 11:23-26
This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia. I am the living bread which has come down from heaven, says the Lord. Anyone who eats this bread will live forever. Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Luke 9:11-17
Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing. It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets. The Gospel of the Lord.

The Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

This Week

Mission Prayer

Please take a card with the Mission Prayer and please pray this prayer daily in preparation for our Parish Mission in a few weeks' time. Why not take an extra card or two for a neighbour, relative, or friend. A full Mission timetable will be available from next weekend.

Father,

as we prepare for our Parish Mission,
pour out your Spirit upon us as on the day of Pentecost.

Grant us a new vision of your glory,

a new experience of your power,

a new faithfulness to your Word,

and a new consecration to your service.

May our Mission be a time of renewal for those who are firm in their faith, of encouragement and consolation for those who live with struggle and doubt,

and an occasion for the Gospel of Jesus Christ to be proclaimed to those who have not yet heard it.

May your love grow among us, and may our lives bear witness of that love to our neighbours,

so that your Kingdom may come,

through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

You are Living Stones

This process is on-going and proposals continue to be developed. The latest plans suggest that our Deanery will remain as it is, but that we will need to cover it with three priests rather than with four. The likely pairings are: Holy Souls and Crowle, Barton and Brigg, and St Bernadette's and Gainsborough. When something definitive emerges a further announcement will be made.

Lights

A sample of the new light fittings will be fitted in the church this week.

Church Cleaning

Wednesday 12th June at 8.00 am and then every fortnight thereafter. All offers of help would be much appreciated.
