

Reading for 10th Sunday - Year C

First Reading

1 Kings 17:17-24

The son of the mistress of the house fell sick; his illness was so severe that in the end he had no breath left in him. And the woman said to Elijah, 'What quarrel have you with me, man of God? Have you come here to bring my sins home to me and to kill my son?' 'Give me your son,' he said, and taking him from her lap, carried him to the upper room where he was staying and laid him on his own bed. He cried out to the Lord, 'Lord my God, do you mean to bring grief to the widow who is looking after me by killing her son?' He stretched himself on the child three times and cried out to the Lord, 'Lord my God, may the soul of this child, I beg you, come into him again!' The Lord heard the prayer of Elijah and the soul of the child returned to him again and he revived. Elijah took the child, brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. 'Look,' Elijah said, 'your son is alive.' And the woman replied, 'Now I know you are a man of God and the word of the Lord in your mouth is truth itself.' The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 29:2.4-6.11-13

[R]: I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me.

Second Reading

Galatians 1:11-19

The Good news I preached is not a human message that I was given by men, it is something that I learnt only through a revelation of Jesus Christ. You must have heard of my career as a practicing Jew, how merciless I was in persecuting the Church of God, how much damage I did to it, how I stood out among other Jews of my generation, and how enthusiastic I was for the traditions of my ancestors. Then God, who had specially chose me while I was still in my mother's womb, called me through his grace and chose to reveal his Son in me, so that I might preach the Good News about him to the pagans. I did not stop to discuss this with any human being, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to see those who were already apostles before me, but I went off to Arabia at once and later went straight back from there to Damascus. Even when after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and stayed with him for fifteen days, I did not see any of the other apostles; I only saw James, the brother of the Lord. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 7:11-17

Jesus went to a town called Nain, accompanied by his disciples and a great number of people. When he was near the gate of the town it happened that a dead man was being carried out for burial, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a considerable number of the townspeople were with her. When the Lord saw her he felt sorry for her. 'Do not cry,' he said. Then he went up and put his hand on the bier and the bearers stood still, and he said, 'Young man, I tell you to get up.' And the dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Everyone was filled with awe and praised God saying, 'A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people.' And this opinion of him spread throughout Judaea and all over the countryside. The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

This Week

Mission Prayer

Father, as we prepare for our Parish Mission, pour out your Spirit upon us as on the day of Pentecost.

Grant us a new vision of your glory,
a new experience of your power,
a new faithfulness to your Word,
and a new consecration to your service.

May our Mission be a time of renewal for those who are firm in their faith, of encouragement and consolation for those who live with struggle and doubt, and an occasion for the Gospel of Jesus Christ to be proclaimed to those who have not yet heard it.

May your love grow among us,
and may our lives bear witness of that love to our neighbours,
so that your Kingdom may come,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Parish Mission

Copies of an invitation and a timetable for the Parish Mission are available from this weekend. Please take as many copies as you are able to distribute. Those who volunteered to take these around to addresses on the parish data base please make contact with Fr Eddy. Do continue to pray the Mission prayer daily in preparation for the Mission.

Daily Mass sheets

Those who attend daily Mass will have much reason to be grateful to Marion Blanchard who has produced the leaflets with the antiphons, psalm response, and Gospel acclamation for many years. Marion feels that the time has come to hand the task on to someone else, and we are also grateful to Mary Egan who has agreed to take over this work.

Clergy Conference

Fr Eddy and Fr Benedict spent three days learning about Islam. Although it may seem an unusual topic for a Conference for Catholic clergy it was useful to learn about one of the largest religions in the UK and also locally in Scunthorpe. Just like Christians, Muslims are divided into many groups and 'denominations'. Also it is reassuring to learn that just like among our own community there are various levels of observance and commitment from the very devout to the vast majority who will only attend their local Mosque once or twice a year. Another aspect of the Conference is that it is an opportunity to catch up with other clergy from the Diocese. Bishop Malcolm was able to join us for part of the conference although he is still in a lot of pain and discomfort with his foot. Amongst those with Scunthorpe connections, Fr Joe O'Hanlon particularly wished to be remembered to people at Holy Souls.

Financial Report:

Please pick up a copy from the back of church (it will also be available on the newsletter section of the parish website).

Eucharistic Adoration

Thanks to everyone who took part in the Eucharistic Adoration last Friday evening, it was a fitting preparation for the feast of Corpus Christi.

Lourdes

Last year Fr Eddy went on a pilgrimage to Lourdes staying at Hosanna House. This particular group is organised by two people from his former parish in Leicester but last year Fr Eddy was able to bring George Smith with him and there could be a possibility for one or two people to accompany him this year on the pilgrimage. For more information please speak to Fr Eddy.

Walsingham

The Diocesan Pilgrimage to Walsingham next Sunday 16th June. A coach, from the Scunthorpe Deanery, will depart Holy Souls at 7.15 am and St Bernadette's at 7.30 am; the cost is £12 per passenger payable in advance. If you would like a seat please sign the list in the sacristy.

Unclaimed Easter Draw Prize

Would Valerie P (ticket number 1101) please make herself known to one of the clergy to collect an unclaimed prize.
