

Readings for Sts Peter and Paul, Apostles

First Reading

Acts 12:1-11

King Herod started persecuting certain members of the Church. He beheaded James the brother of John, and when he saw that this pleased the Jews he decided to arrest Peter as well. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread, and he put Peter in prison, assigning four squads of four soldiers each to guard him in turns. Herod meant to try Peter in public after the end of Passover week. All the time Peter was under guard the Church prayed to God for him unremittingly. On the night before Herod was to try him, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, fastened with double chains, while guards kept watch at the main entrance to the prison. Then suddenly the angel of the Lord stood there, and the cell was filled with light. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him. 'Get up!', he said. 'Hurry!' - and the chains fell from his hands. The angel then said, 'Put on your belt and sandals'. After he had done this, the angel next said, 'Wrap your cloak round you and follow me'. Peter followed him, but had no idea that what the angel did was all happening in reality; he thought he was seeing a vision. They passed through two guard posts one after the other, and reached the iron gate leading to the city. This opened of its own accord; they went through it and had walked the whole length of one street when suddenly the angel left him. It was only then that Peter came to himself. 'Now I know it is all true,' he said. 'The Lord really did send his angel and has saved me from Herod and from all that the Jewish people were so certain would happen to me'.

This World of the Lord.

Ps: 33:2-9

[R]: From all my terrors the Lord set me free.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:608.17-18

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing. The Lord stood by me and gave me power so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever, Amen. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church. And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 16:13-19

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say he is John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he said 'who do you say I am?' Then Simon Peter spoke up, 'You are the Christ,' he said 'the Son of the living God.' Jesus replied, 'Simon son of Jonah, you are a happy man! Because it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. So I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church. And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. I will give you the key's of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Parish Mission

A warm welcome to Fr Michael Winstanley who will be with us throughout the Mission Week. We also look forward to welcoming the Youth Ministry team from Savio House who will be with us for the Service for Young People on Tuesday evening.

The Mission will close with Mass on Friday evening at 7.00 pm followed by a shared table supper in the Hall. We hope that both the Mass and the supper will reflect the different nationalities and cultures that are part of our parish community. When planning a contribution for the shared table please remember that it is a Friday evening and keep free of meat.

Mission Prayer

Father, as we celebrate our Parish Mission, pour out your Spirit upon us as on the day of Pentecost.

Grant us a new vision of your glory,
a new experience of your power,
a new faithfulness to your Word,
and a new consecration to your service.

May our Mission be a time of renewal for those who are firm in their faith, of encouragement and consolation for those who live with struggle and doubt,

and an occasion for the Gospel of Jesus Christ to be proclaimed to those who have not yet heard it.

May your love grow among us,
and may our lives bear witness of that love to our neighbours,
so that your Kingdom may come,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

St Bede's School Update

Construction is moving on with real pace with the steelwork for the new Teaching and Admin block going up to be followed by the frame for the new Sports Hall. Improvements in disabled access will also be incorporated in the build. Much work will be done during the summer break including an addition to the new ICT and Humanities block, at the rear of the school, and the construction of a lift which will give access to all three floors of the Maths and MFL block. The summer break will also see a new IT network being introduced which will improve IT capacity and increase the security of IT systems.
