

14th Sunday of Ordinary Time Year C

First Reading

Isaiah 66:10-14
 Rejoice, Jerusalem, be glad for her, all you who love her! Rejoice, rejoice for her, all you who mourned her! That you may be suckled, filled, from her consoling breast, that you may savour with delight her glorious breasts. For thus says the Lord: Now towards her I send flowing peace, like a river, and like a stream in spate the glory of the nations. At her breast will her nurselings be carried and fondled in her lap. Like a son comforted by his mother will I comfort you. And by Jerusalem you will be comforted. At the sight your heart will rejoice, and your bones flourish like the grass. To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 65:1-7.16.20

[R]: Cry out with joy to God all the earth.

Second Reading

Galatians 6:14-18
 The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God. I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia. May the peace of Christ reign in your hearts; let the message of Christ find a home in you. Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Luke 10:1-12.17-20
 The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, "The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, "Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, "We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near." I tell you, on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.' The seventy-two came back rejoicing. 'Lord,' they said, 'even the devils submit to us when we use your name.' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Pat Vickers RIP

Whereas every death is a loss to a family, when someone who has been actively involved in parish life for many years dies such a loss is also felt by the parish as a whole. A couple of weeks ago we buried Jack Egan and now we have lost Pat Vickers who died peacefully surrounded by her family on Wednesday evening of this week. Pat came to Scunthorpe at the age of 10 and for the remaining 70+ years of her life Holy Souls was to her an extension of her family home. She will be very much missed not only by her family, but by the many friends she made through the parish. Pat's remains will be brought into church on Sunday 14th July at 6.00 pm and her Requiem Mass will be on Monday 15th July at 1.30 pm. May she rest in peace.

Second Collections

Next weekend we will take up a second collection to help defray the costs of the Parish Mission.

The Sea Sunday collection will be deferred by one week until 20th/21st July when we will also have a speaker from the Apostleship of the Sea.

The annual Peter's Pence collection, taken up last weekend, amounted to £336.96. Many thanks for your generosity.

Neil Peoples

Some parishioners may remember Neil who spent a month here on a Pastoral Placement whilst at seminary. Neil was ordained to the priesthood on Saturday in his home parish of St Peter's, Leicester. Please remember him in your prayers and also John Martin who is due to be ordained priest at the Cathedral in Nottingham next Saturday.

Church Lighting

Work on the new lighting will commence on Tuesday 16th July and will last for two/three weeks. During that time there will be no weekday Masses at Holy Souls. There will be Mass at St Bernadette's at 9.00 am during the weeks beginning Monday 15th and Monday 22nd July. As most people seem to travel to Mass by car hopefully they will also be able to make it to St Bernadette's.

Sick and Retired Priests Appeal

The current total raised from Holy Souls is £5813.50 - thank you to everyone for your generosity. If you have not yet signed a pledge and wish to do so please speak to Paul Hemingway on 842834.

St Joseph

The Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments has issued a decree inserting the name of St Joseph into Eucharistic Prayers II, III & IV. The words 'with blessed Joseph, her Spouse,' are to be inserted between the mention of the Blessed Virgin Mary and that of the Apostles.

Fountains Abbey

The coach has been cancelled due to lack of numbers.

Parish Mission

A big thank you to Fr Michael Winstanley for coming to lead our Parish Mission and also a big thank you to all those who helped with hospitality in the Hall after various events.

Please collect a Mission Feedback postcard and return it to Fr Eddy as soon as possible, as well as giving you an opportunity to share your own thoughts on the Mission, it also contains some suggestions for things which could develop in the parish in the future. Even if you didn't attend any of the Mission events your thoughts would be welcome.
