

Readings for 27th Sunday of Ordinary Time

First Reading

Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4

How long, Lord, am I to cry for help while you will not listen; to cry Oppression! in your ear and you will not save? Why do you set injustice before me, why do you look on where there is tyranny? Outrage and violence, this is all I see, all is contention, and discord flourishes. Then the Lord answered and said, Write the vision down, inscribe it on tablets to be easily read, since this vision is for its own time only: eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive; if it comes slowly, wait, for come it will, without fail. See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights, but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.

The Word of the Lord.

Psalm: 94:1-2.6-9

[R]: O that today you would listen to his voice! Harden not your hearts.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 1:6-8.13-14

I am reminding you to fan into a flame the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God. Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia. Speak Lord, your servant is listening: you have the message of eternal life. Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Luke 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you. "Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"? Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."' The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Dates for your Diary

Annual Crafts and Gifts Fair

Sunday 10th November 2013.

As usual, we will have a parish crafts stall selling handmade items donated by parishioners. These can be knitted, stitched, carved, painted or hand-crafted in any way. We will also have a cake stall selling homemade cakes, sweets and preserves. Any items you can donate for either stall will be gratefully received and all proceeds will go to the church. Items can be brought to the parish hall after Sunday morning Masses or to Stitch'n'Chat on Wednesdays 1:30-3:30pm. Stall space is available for any crafters wishing to sell their own goods. Please contact Marie

Dowse on 07542 715929 if you are interested.

How to reach non churchgoing Catholics? Saturday 7th December between 10.00 am and 4.00 pm

A resource day led by Bishop Malcolm and Bishop Kieran Conry will take place at Trinity School, Nottingham. If anyone from the parish would like to attend please speak to Fr Eddy.

Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes

13th to 19th July 2014.

Formal booking forms will be available in the New Year, offering a variety of hotels and options starting at £315. You will not get it cheaper! "We welcome enquiries from pilgrims all over the Diocese" says Fr Greg Tobin, Pilgrimage Director. "Regardless of your situation we will endeavour to give you a wonderful week to remember. This pilgrimage offers the best of medical care to all our sick pilgrims, and our insurance allows us to take people who might previously have thought a journey to the south of France was completely out of the question. We welcome enquiries from groups, parishes, families and individual pilgrims.

We all return home different people, touched by the caring love of our medical team, the army of young people who bring so much vitality to the pilgrimage and of course the spirit of Lourdes where Our Lady appeared to St Bernadette with a special message for humanity. So please put the date in your diaries and I look forward to taking you to Lourdes with the Diocesan Pilgrimage in July 2014".

Diocesan Newspaper

Free copies available at the back of church. PLEASE take one!
