

Readings for 28th Sunday of Ordinary Time

First Reading

2 Kings 5:14-17

Naaman the leper went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child. Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and stood before him. Now I know he said that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now, please, accept a present from your servant. But Elisha replied, As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing. Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, Since your answer is No, allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, because your servant will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any god except the Lord. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 97:1-4

[R]: The Lord has shown his salvation to the nations

Second Reading

2 Timothy 2:8-13

Remember the Good News that I carry. 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David'; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal - but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it. Here is a saying that you can rely on: If we have died with him, then we shall live with him. If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him. If we disown him, then he will disown us. We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful, for he cannot disown his own self.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia. Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life: you have the message of eternal life. Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Luke 17:11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.' When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Retired Priests Appeal

The Retired Priests Appeal has topped the first million! John Curran, Appeal Chairman says "This is a wonderful testament to the generosity of the people of the Diocese. We still have a long way to go, but this is a very encouraging start. I'd like to thank all those who have pledged or given at this early stage." If you have not yet signed a four year pledge there will be a renewed opportunity to do so in the coming weeks, or please speak to Paul Hemingway.

Thanks from The Forge

We have received a letter of thanks from the Forge for our fundraising efforts through the Pie & Pea supper and Quiz evening last Saturday and the Prize Draw. At the end of our efforts, and with the help of one or two other donations, including the collection at the CINS Harvest Festival last Sunday, we were able to present the Forge with a cheque for £1,000. A list of Prize Draw winners is displayed at the back of the Church.

YOUCAT Group

An invitation to young adults (16-25) to learn more about the Catholic faith through reading and studying the youth version of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The first meeting is on Wednesday 30th October at 7.00 pm in the parish Hall at Holy Souls.

How to reach non-churchgoing Catholics?

A resource day led by Bishop Malcolm and Bishop Kieran Conry will take place at Trinity School, Nottingham, on Saturday 7th December between 10.00 am and 4.00 pm. If anyone from the parish would like to attend please speak to Fr Eddy.

Poland Pilgrimage

Following the successful Rome pilgrimage earlier this year the next request was for a pilgrimage to Poland. Fr Eddy is proposing such a Pilgrimage for the October half term break next year. Based in Krakow it would include visits to Chestochowa, Wadowicze (the birth place of Pope John Paul II), Lagiewniki (shrine of the Divine Mercy), and Auschwitz, as well as an opportunity to visit Krakow. The cost will be of the order of £600 and we would need to guarantee a minimum number of pilgrims before the trip could definitely go ahead. Therefore please express your interest at the earliest opportunity, and deposits will be required soon.
