

Readings for the 29th Sunday

First Reading

Exodus 17:8-13

The Amalekites came and attacked Israel at Rephidim. Moses said to Joshua, Pick out men for yourself, and tomorrow morning march out to engage Amalek. I, meanwhile, will stand on the hilltop, the staff of God in my hand. Joshua did as Moses told him and marched out to engage Amalek, while Moses and Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill. As long as Moses kept his arms raised, Israel had the advantage; when he let his arms fall, the advantage went to Amalek. But Moses arms grew heavy, so they took a stone and put it under him and on this he sat, Aaron and Hur supporting his arms, one on one side, one on the other; and his arms remained firm till sunset. With the edge of the sword Joshua cut down Amalek and his people. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 120

[R]: Our help is in the name of the Lord who made heaven and earth.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 3:14 – 4:2

You must keep to what you have been taught and know to be true; remember who your teachers were, and how, ever since you were a child, you have known the holy scriptures - from these you can learn the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and can profitably be used for teaching, for refuting error, for guiding people's lives and teaching them to be holy. This is how the man who is dedicated to God becomes fully equipped and ready for any good work. Before God and before Christ Jesus who is to be judge of the living and the dead, I put this duty to you, in the name of his Appearing and of his kingdom: proclaim the message and, welcome or unwelcome, insist on it. Refute falsehood, correct error, call to obedience - but do all with patience and with the intention of teaching. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Luke 18:1-8

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the need to pray continually and never lose heart. "There was a judge in a certain town" he said "who had neither fear of God nor respect for man. In the same town there was a widow who kept on coming to him and saying, "I want justice from you against my enemy!" For a long time he refused, but at last he said to himself, "Maybe I have neither fear of God nor respect for man, but since she keeps pestering me I must give this widow her just rights, or she will persist in coming and worry me to death." 'And the Lord said, 'You notice what the unjust judge has to say? Now will not God see justice done to his chosen who cry to him day and night even when he delays to help them? I promise you, he will see justice done to them, and done speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find any faith on earth? The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

This Week

Fr Kevin Coughlan RIP

It is with sadness that we learned of the death of Fr Kevin Coughlan, a priest of the Middlesbrough Diocese, in the early hours of Monday morning. We remember with gratitude Fr Kevin's work in our Deanery during his retirement in Hessle and pray that he may enjoy eternal rest. Fr Kevin's Requiem Mass is at St Charles's in Hull on Tuesday 22nd October at 12.10 pm.

Seminarians

Our parish clergy have been asked to help give some discernment and encouragement to a young man from the Gainsborough parish who is hoping to apply to be accepted to start seminary formation next year. Joe McCay is currently with us on a Thursday and those who attend daily Mass will have already met him, he has also visited both our parish schools. Please keep Joe in your prayers and if you see him around do say hello.

Also we have recently received a message from Jonathan Rose who was with us on a summer placement in the summer of last year, he is well and looking forward to another year of seminary and wishes to be remembered to all at Holy Souls.

Please come and join us in the Parish Hall for tea and coffee after the 9.30 am Mass

November Holy Souls List

These lists are now available from the back of Church and can be completed and returned to the sacristy before the start of November. During the month of November we will have a number of Masses for the Holy Souls beginning on the feast of Holy Souls on Saturday 2nd

November and ending with our annual memorial Mass on Friday 29th November 2013. You may wish to include an offering with your November list towards the Masses that will be offered and as has been the custom over recent years any such offerings will be donated to Lindsey Lodge.

Retired Priests Appeal

The Retired Priests Appeal has topped the first million! John Curran, Appeal Chairman says "This is a wonderful testament to the generosity of the people of the Diocese. We still have a long way to go, but this is a very encouraging start. I'd like to thank all those who have pledged or given at this early stage." If you have not yet signed a four year pledge there will be a renewed opportunity to do so in the coming weeks, or please speak to Paul Hemingway.

YOUCAT Group

An invitation to young adults (16-25) to learn more about the Catholic faith through reading and studying the youth version of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The first meeting is on Wednesday 30th October at 7.00 pm in the parish Hall at Holy Souls.

Holy Hour

Following our parish mission people asked for more times of prayer in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. In response to this we are proposing a weekly Holy Hour on a Thursday evening between 7.00 pm and 8.00 pm. We will begin on Thursday 31st October. The emphasis will be on silent prayer.

Year of Faith

Our Diocesan celebration of the Year of Faith will finish on Saturday 23rd November 2013, with a Closing Mass in St Barnabas' Cathedral at 12 noon, which Bishop Malcolm will celebrate. The Bishop hopes that all 108 parishes will be represented at this important Diocesan celebration, and would be grateful at least six or so parishioners from each parish, including from parish schools, are able to attend; others, of course, will be welcome.

How to reach non-churchgoing Catholics?

A resource day led by Bishop Malcolm and Bishop Kieran Conry will take place at Trinity School, Nottingham, on Saturday 7th December between 10.00 am and 4.00 pm. If anyone from the parish would like to attend please speak to Fr Eddy.

Poland Pilgrimage

Following the successful Rome pilgrimage earlier this year the next request was for a pilgrimage to Poland. Fr Eddy is proposing such a Pilgrimage for the October half term break next year. Based in Krakow it would include visits to Chestochowa, Wadowice (the birth place of Pope John Paul II), Lagiewniki (shrine of the Divine Mercy), and Auschwitz, as well as an opportunity to visit Krakow. The cost will be of the order of £600 and we would need to guarantee a minimum number of pilgrims before the trip could definitely go ahead. Therefore please express your interest at the earliest opportunity, and deposits will be required soon.
