

Readings for the Third Sunday of the Year

First Reading

Isaiah 8:23 - 9:3

In days past the Lord humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in days to come he will confer glory on the Way of the Sea on the far side of Jordan, province of the nations. The people that walked in darkness has seen a great light; on those who live in a land of deep shadow a light has shone. You have made their gladness greater, you have made their joy increase, they rejoice in your presence as men rejoice at harvest time, as men are happy when they are dividing the spoils. For the yoke that was weighing on him, the bar across his shoulders, the rod of his oppressor, these you break as on the day of Midian. The Word of the Lord

Ps: 26:1.4.13-14

[R]: The Lord is my light and my help.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:10-13.17

I appeal to you, brothers, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, to make up the differences between you, and instead of disagreeing among yourselves, to be united again in your belief and practice. From what Chloe's people have been telling me, my dear brothers, it is clear that there are serious differences among you. What I mean are all these slogans that you have, like: 'I am for Paul', 'I am for Apollos', 'I am for Cephas', 'I am for Christ'. Has Christ been parcelled out? Was it Paul that was crucified for you? Were you baptised in the name of Paul? For Christ did not send me to baptise, but to preach the Good News, and not to preach that in the terms of philosophy in which the crucifixion of Christ cannot be expressed. The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Jesus proclaimed the Good News of the Kingdom, and cured all kinds of sickness among the people. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Matthew 4:12-23

Hearing that John had been arrested Jesus went back to Galilee, and leaving Nazareth he went and settled in Capernaum, a lakeside town on the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali. In this way the prophecy of Isaiah was to be fulfilled: Land of Zebulun! Land of Naphtali! Way of the sea on the far side of Jordan, Galilee of the nations! The people that lived in darkness has seen a great light; on those who dwell in the land and shadow of death a light has dawned. From that moment Jesus began his preaching with the message, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee he saw two brothers, Simon, who was called Peter, and his brother Andrew; they were making a cast in the lake with their net, for they were fishermen. And he said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.' And they left their nets at once and followed him. Going on from there he saw another pair of brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John; they were in their boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. At once, leaving the boat and their father, they followed him. He went round the whole of Galilee teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom and curing all kinds of diseases and sickness among the people. The Gospel of the Lord

Mystery of Faith: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

Education Sunday

Is a national event kept on the 9th Sunday before Easter which this year will be Sunday 16th February. Education Sunday is significant because it gives us a unique opportunity to give thanks specifically for the contributions that Catholic schools make to all aspects of the community, from community cohesion to academic achievement. It also provides us with an opportunity to strengthen the links between Catholic schools and parishes; a relationship which is central to maintaining the Catholic ethos of schools.

It would be good to make more of this in our parish than we have done in the recent past, not least to recognise the contribution that many of our parishioners make to Catholic Education. Fr Eddy would like to invite all parishioners involved in Catholic Schools as teachers, support staff, or governors to reflect on how we could best do this. Any ideas will be gratefully received

Children's Pilgrimage to Walsingham

A pilgrimage is planned for Saturday 22nd February (end of half term week) particularly aimed for families with children.
