

Readings for the Second Sunday of Lent

First Reading

Genesis 12:1-4

The Lord said to Abram, Leave your country, your family and your fathers house, for the land I will show you. I will make you a great nation; I will bless you and make your name so famous that it will be used as a blessing. I will bless those who bless you: I will curse those who slight you. All the tribes of the earth shall bless themselves by you. So Abram went as the Lord told him. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 32:4-5.18-20.22

[R]: May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 1:8-10

With me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God who has saved us and called us to be holy - not because of anything we ourselves have done but for his own purpose and by his own grace. This grace had already been granted to us, in Christ Jesus, before the beginning of time, but it has only been revealed by the Appearing of our saviour Christ Jesus. He abolished death, and he has proclaimed life and immortality through the Good News. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Glory and praise to you, O Christ ! From the bright cloud the Father's voice was heard: 'This is my Son the Beloved. Listen to Him. Glory and praise to you, O Christ !

Gospel Reading

Matthew 17:1-9

Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone. There in their presence he was transfigured: his face shone like the sun and his clothes became as white as the light. Suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared to them; they were talking with him. Then Peter spoke to Jesus. 'Lord,' he said 'it is wonderful for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.' He was still speaking when suddenly a bright cloud covered them with shadow, and from the cloud there came a voice which said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; he enjoys my favour. Listen to him.' When they heard this, the disciples fell on their faces, overcome with fear. But Jesus came up and touched them. 'Stand up,' he said 'do not be afraid.' And when they raised their eyes they saw no one but only Jesus. As they came down from the mountain Jesus gave them this order, 'Tell no one about the vision until the Son of Man has risen from the dead. The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

First Confessions

Please pray for the children who will celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time on Wednesday evening at 6.00 pm.

Science Block

The new science block at St Augustine Webster was opened and blessed last week. As well as the laboratory there are also two new changing rooms. The school plan to organise an open day for parents and the parish community.

Stained Glass Windows

The plan to install new stained glass windows to commemorate the centenary of the parish continues to take shape. The three saints who will feature in the windows are St Augustine Webster, St John Paul II, and St John Marie Vianney. The first two need no introduction. St John Marie Vianney is also known as the Cure d'Ars and is the patron saint of parish clergy. The window depicting him will be dedicated to the memory of the priests who have served at Holy Souls over the past 100 years. Designs are on display in the Hall and your comments are welcome.

Pope Francis

A year has flown by very quickly! We continue to keep him in our prayers, not forgetting also to say an occasional prayer for his predecessor now Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI.

Teaching Vacancies

The Diocesan Education Service regularly send out details of vacancies in Catholic Schools to be mentioned in parish newsletters/reminders. For example this week we have received notice of a vacancy for a Headteacher for a primary school in Measham, Leicestershire, and for class teachers for a primary school in Nottinghamshire. It is not always possible to put all the information in the reminder but if anyone would like details of these or other vacancies and does not receive the information from other sources please let Fr Eddy know and he will forward any such e-mails on to you.

Easter Fair and Prize Draw

Like last year we hope to run a prize draw. Any donations of prizes or offers of help most welcome. Events such as the Easter Fair are important in the life of a parish, not only for fundraising, but especially as they bring people together in a social environment. Please don't leave it to the usual small number of people, but get involved and help make the event a success.
