

Readings for The Solemnity of Pentecost

First Reading

Acts 2:1-11
When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. Surely they said all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.

The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 103

[R]: Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:3-7.12-13
No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is under the influence of the Holy Spirit. There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

John 20:19-23
In the evening of the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you', and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you. 'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.' After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven: for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

This Week

Churches in North Scunthorpe Ecumenical Service

At Centenary Methodist Church on Sunday 8th June at 5.00 pm. Apologies for late notice but hopefully some people reading this may still be able to attend. Come and celebrate the Feast of Pentecost with our friends and neighbours from other local churches

North Lincs Homes Advice Drop In

A member of staff from North Lincolnshire Homes will be in the Church Hall between 10.00 am and 12 noon on Monday morning to offer advice on various matters. This service is not limited to tenants of North Lincolnshire Homes but is open to all members of the community.

Introducing Islam ~ for Catholics and friends

Wednesday 11th June from 7.30 – 9.00 pm. Speaker: Maulana Ahmed Peerbhai of Nottingham Green Academy Catholic Church of the Holy Spirit (corner of Victoria Road/Melton Road, West Bridgford NG2 7NT). Talk, with time for questions and discussion.

Deanery Retreat

at St Bernadette's on Friday/Saturday 13th/14th June, led by Fr Kieran Monaghan from Ampleforth Abbey. Friday evening: 7.00 to 9.00 pm; Saturday: 10.00 am to 3.00 pm - includes Mass (Friday and Saturday), talks, opportunity for Confession and Holy Hour.

HCPT

Next weekend we will have a visit from Amanda Leadbeater who will tell us about the work of HCPT and in particular about the local HCPT Group of which she is the leader. HCPT is second only to CAFOD as a Catholic Charity in this country, and makes it possible for many thousands of people to go on pilgrimage to Lourdes. In addition to this our 9.30 am Mass will be celebrated by Fr Kieran from Ampleforth who is giving the Deanery Retreat at St Bernadette's.

Walsingham Pilgrimage

Sunday 15th June. There will be a coach leaving from Holy Souls - cost £12 per head. Please sign list in Sacristy if you wish to go.

Safeguarding

The Church's policies about safeguarding say that anyone who has any ministry with children, young people or vulnerable adults should have some basic safeguarding training before or during the time they carry out that ministry. On Thursday 26th June between 7.00 - 9.00 pm John Creedon, the safeguarding coordinator for the Diocese, will be coming to Holy Souls to lead this training for our parish. Everyone involved with children or vulnerable adults in the parish should make a special effort to attend this event.

Open Day

The Briars and CAFOD Open Day Takes place at The Briars, Crich, Derbyshire on Sunday 29th June. It begins with Mass at 1.00 pm, followed by a BBQ and various fun activities including a barn dance. A fun day out for all the family.

Birthday celebration

As some people will already be aware Fr Eddy reaches a significant birthday in a few weeks' time. He would like to invite parishioners to celebrate with him on the evening of Monday 30th June at the Megna Indian Restaurant on Doncaster Road. This will be a ticketed event, and tickets are available from Marie Dowse or Elaine Hemingway, priced £15 and includes a banquet meal with a selection of dishes. There will be a raffle for the Sick and Retired Fund Priests Appeal. For any further information about this event please speak to Marie or Elaine. There will also be a further opportunity for all parishioners to celebrate after all Masses on 28th/29th June with cake and wine in the Hall. Fr Eddy asks that if parishioners want to mark this birthday they do so by supporting the Sick and Retired Priests Fund Appeal either through the above event or in another way of their own choosing.

Jonathan Rose

You may remember that Jonathan spent a month with us at Holy Souls in the summer of 2012. Now he is preparing for his Diaconate Ordination which will take place on 18th June and he asks for our prayers. God willing, Jonathan will spend a year as a Deacon before being ordained a priest in the summer of 2015.

Gift Aid

Thank you to all who give to the parish through the Gift Aid scheme. Our annual accounts (April 2013-March 2014) should be ready within the next couple of weeks and a report will be presented to the parish. In the meantime the Gift Aid office in Nottingham has asked that all donors be reminded that it is their responsibility to inform the Gift Aid office if they cease to be tax payers. In recent years the threshold at which people start paying income tax has gone up significantly so it may be that there are people who have signed Gift Aid declarations but who are no longer tax payers. If that is the case please let Fr Eddy know and he will pass on a message to the office in Nottingham.

Please come and join us in the Parish Hall for tea and coffee after the 9.30 am Sunday Mass
