

Reading for Trinity Sunday

First Reading

Exodus 34:4-6.8-9

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there. He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness. And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. If I have indeed won your favour, Lord, he said, let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 3:4-6.8-9

[R]: To you glory and praise for evermore.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 13:11-13

My dear people, let us love one another since love comes from God and everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Anyone who fails to love can never have known God, because God is love. God's love for us was revealed when God sent into the world his only Son so that we could have life through him; this is the love I mean: not our love for God, but God's love for us when he sent his Son to be the sacrifice that takes our sins away. My dear people, since God has loved us so much, we too should love one another. No one has ever seen God; but as long as we love one another. No one has ever seen God; but will live in us and his love will be complete in us. We can know that we are living in him and he is living in us because he lets us share his spirit. We ourselves saw and we testify that the Father sent his Son as saviour of the world. If anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in him, and he in God. We ourselves have known and put our faith in God's love towards ourselves. God is love and anyone who lives in love lives in God, and God lives in him.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, the God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

John 3:16-18

Jesus said to Nicodemus, 'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

This Week

Creed

Now that the Easter Season had finished we will resume using the Nicene Creed to profess our faith.

Mass for the Election of a Bishop

The Missal provides special prayers to be said for the appointment of a new Bishop and we will try to use these prayers once each week during a weekday Mass. If you are unable to get to weekday Mass you may wish to pray for this intention at home:

O God, eternal shepherd,
who govern your flock with unfailing care,
grant in your boundless fatherly love
a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness
and to us show watchful care.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

HCPT

This weekend we will have a visit from Amanda Leadbeater who will tell us about the work of HCPT and in particular about the local HCPT Group of which she is the leader. HCPT is second only to CAFOD as a Catholic Charity in this country, and makes it possible for many thousands of people to go on pilgrimage to Lourdes. In addition to this our 9.30 am Mass will be celebrated by Fr Kieran from Ampleforth who is giving the Deanery Retreat at St Bernadette's.

Jonathan Rose

You may remember that Jonathan spent a month with us at Holy Souls in the summer of 2012. Now he is preparing for his Diaconate Ordination which will take place on 18th June and he asks for our prayers. God willing, Jonathan will spend a year as a Deacon before being ordained a priest in the summer of 2015.

Reach 4 Event

Aged 14-18? 'Cannons' is an open event designed just for you taking place from 7.00 pm to 9.00 pm on Wednesday 25th June at Holy Souls. It is being led by members of The Briars team and will be a great evening of fun, music and prayer. For more information please visit www.ndcys.com."

Safeguarding

The Church's policies about safeguarding say that anyone who has any ministry with children, young people or vulnerable adults should have some basic safeguarding training before or during the time they carry out that ministry. On Thursday 26th June between 7.00 - 9.00 pm John Creedon, the safeguarding coordinator for the Diocese, will be coming to Holy Souls to lead this training for our parish. Everyone involved with children or vulnerable adults in the parish should make a special effort to attend this event.

Birthday celebration

As some people will already be aware Fr Eddy reaches a significant birthday in a few weeks' time. He would like to invite parishioners to celebrate with him on the evening of Monday 30th June at the Megna Indian Restaurant on Doncaster Road. This will be a ticketed event, and tickets are available from Marie Dowse or Elaine Hemingway, priced £15 and includes a banquet meal with a selection of dishes. There will be a raffle for the Sick and Retired Fund Priests Appeal. For any further information about this event please speak to Marie or Elaine. There will also be a further opportunity for all parishioners to celebrate after both Masses on 29th June with cake and wine in the Hall.

Fr Eddy asks that if parishioners want to mark this birthday they do so by supporting the Sick and Retired Priests Fund Appeal either through the above event or in another way of their own choosing.

Open Day

The Briars and CAFOD Open Day takes place at The Briars, Crich, Derbyshire, on Sunday 29th June. It begins with Mass at 1.00 pm, followed by a BBQ and various fun activities including a barn dance.

SPANNED

The SPANNED Group are holding an Annual Retreat Day on Sunday 29th June 2014 at St Bernadette's Parish Centre from Midday onwards, with Mass at around 3.00 pm. All are invited to attend. If anyone would like to attend, or can help out in any way, please contact Nora (01724) 841369 or Marie (01724) 337974.

Hall Toilets

Our thanks to Mary Egan who has cleaned the new toilets that serve the church and hall since they were opened over three years ago. Mary is ready to relinquish this role and hopefully someone else can come forward to take this on. If you are interested to know more about what is involved please speak to Mary or to Fr Eddy.

Celebrate Conference

A Catholic Charismatic Weekend Conference at Holy Family Academy in Cleethorpes on 12th and 13th July. For further details please see www.celebrateconference.org

Please come and join us in the Parish Hall for tea and coffee after the 9.30 am Sunday Mass
