

Readings for the 21st Sunday

First Reading

Isaiah 22:19-23

Thus says the Lord of hosts to Shebna, the master of the palace: I dismiss you from your office, I remove you from your post, and the same day I call on my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiyah. I invest him with your robe, gird him with your sash, entrust him with your authority; and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the House of Judah. I place the key of the House of David on his shoulder; should he open, no one shall close, should he close, no one shall open. I drive him like a peg into a firm place; he will become a throne of glory for his fathers house.

The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 137:1-3.6.8

[R]: Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands.

Second Reading

Romans 11:33-36

How rich are the depths of God - how deep his wisdom and knowledge - and how impossible to penetrate his motives or understand his methods! Who could ever know the mind of the Lord? Who could ever be his counsellor? Who could ever give him anything or lend him anything? All that exists comes from him; all is by him and for him. To him be glory for ever! Amen. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! God in Christ was reconciling the world to himself, and he has entrusted to us the news that they are reconciled. Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 16:13-20

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say he is John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he said 'who do you say I am?' Then Simon Peter spoke up, 'You are the Christ,' he said, 'the Son of the living God.' Jesus replied, 'Simon son of Jonah, you are a happy man! Because it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. So I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church. And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.' Then he gave the disciples strict orders not to tell anyone that he was the Christ. The Gospel of the Lord.

Update on Vocations

It has been good to see Daniel Palmer and Dusan Harvilik around in the parish over the summer holidays. They will both be soon returning to their respective seminaries in London and Slovakia. God willing they are both due to be ordained to the diaconate next summer and to the priesthood in 2016. I am sure that we will continue to see Daniel around and about over the coming months, and hopefully we will also see Dusan again once he is a priest, perhaps one summer he might come here to supply over the holidays.

Some parishioners, especially those who regularly come to Mass on a Thursday morning will have got to know Joe McCay. This coming Thursday will be Joe's last Thursday with us before he begins his seminary studies the following week.

Please keep all the above three students for the priesthood in your prayers as they continue their studies and formation. It is good for us as a parish to be involved in the training of future priests. Please also continue to pray for more vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life from amongst the families of our parish.

The Briars

Jason Sheehan from our parish will be part of the residential team at the Diocesan Youth Centre at the Briars during this coming academic year. We pray that it will be an inspiring and grace filled experience for him.

Congratulations

To all our young people who have recently received exam results from school or college. We hope that your results fairly reflect your hard work and that they will help you to pursue your hopes and dreams for the future.
