

Readings for the 22nd Sunday

First Reading

Jeremiah 20:7-9

You have seduced me, Lord, and I have let myself be seduced; you have overpowered me: you were the stronger. I am a daily laughing-stock, everybody's butt. Each time I speak the word, I have to howl and proclaim: Violence and ruin! The word of the Lord has meant for me insult, derision, all day long. I used to say, I will not think about him, I will not speak in his name any more. Then there seemed to be a fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones. The effort to restrain it wearied me, I could not bear it. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 62:2-6.8-8

[R]: For you my soul is thirsting, O Lord my God.

Second Reading

Romans 12:1-2

Think of God's mercy, my brothers, and worship him, I beg you, in a way that is worthy of thinking beings, by offering your living bodies as a holy sacrifice, truly pleasing to God. Do not model yourselves on the behaviour of the world around you, but let your behaviour change, modelled by your new mind. This is the only way to discover the will of God and know what is good, what it is that God wants, what is the perfect thing to do. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia! May the Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope His call holds for us. Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus began to make it clear to his disciples that he was destined to go to Jerusalem and suffer grievously at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, to be put to death and to be raised up on the third day. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. 'Heaven preserve you, Lord,' he said. 'This must not happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle in my path, because the way you think is not God's way but man's.' Then Jesus said to his disciples, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it. What, then, will a man gain if he wins the whole world and ruins his life? Or what has a man to offer in exchange for his life? 'For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and, when he does, he will reward each one according to his behaviour.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

This Week

Parish Pastoral Council

A reminder to PPC Members that our next meeting is on Wednesday 3 September at 7.30pm. Could all members please make every effort to attend.

Update on Vocations

Daniel Palmer and Dusan Harvilik have now returned to their respective seminaries in London and Slovakia. God willing they are both due to be ordained to the diaconate next summer and to the priesthood in 2016. Joe McCay will be beginning his seminary studies this week at Allen Hall seminary in London. Please keep all the above three students for the priesthood in your prayers as they continue their studies and formation. Please also continue to pray for more vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life from amongst the families of our parish.

The Briars

Jason Sheehan from our parish will be part of the residential team at the Diocesan Youth Centre at the Briars during this coming academic year. We pray that it will be an inspiring and grace filled experience for him.

Catholic Diaries

There are some 2015 Catholic Diaries available from the Piety Stall at the back of the church.

Thank You

A number of people noticed the typing mistake in last week's reminder in relation to the date of the PPC meeting. It goes to show what happens when our regular reminder editor is away and I have to do the reminder myself. Likewise any mistakes in this week's reminder are mine alone! However Stephenie's absence for her summer holiday gives me an opportunity to thank her for faithful service over many years in producing the Holy Souls reminder. She has guided the reminder through many changes, not only of parish priest but also of the means of production. I am sure her work is appreciated not just by me and my predecessors as Parish Priest but also by all those who read our reminder whether in print or on line.
