

Twenty-eighth Sunday of Ordinary Time

First Reading

Isaiah 25:6-10

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines, of food rich and juicy, of fine strained wines. On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death for ever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; he will take away his peoples shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so. That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation; the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us; for the hand of the Lord rests on this mountain.

The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 22

[R]: In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

Second Reading

Philippians 4:12-14.19-20

I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! The Word was made flesh and lived among us; to all who did accept him He gave power to become children of God. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Matthew 22:1-14

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the cross-roads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests. When the king came in to look at the guests he noticed one man who was not wearing a wedding garment, and said to him, "How did you get in here, my friend, without a wedding garment?" And the man was silent. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

Fr Frank McLaughlin

who was a curate at Holy Souls between 1959 and 1964 has recently been in touch and sends his regards to those who remember him. He is now retired and living in his home city of Derry in Northern Ireland.

Church Flowers

We are looking for volunteers to help with flowers for the Church. If you are interested in learning more please speak to Fr Eddy.

CAFOD

Our second collection last weekend raised £600, this included a donation of over £50 from the Harvest Festival Mass at Luddington.

Over the past few weeks we have had very generous second collections for CAFOD and also for the Sick and Retired Priests Appeal. Thank you very much to all who have contributed.

Diocesan Accounts and Budget

A reminder that Mr Edward Poyser will be at Holy Souls on Tuesday 21st October at 7.00 pm to make a presentation and to answer questions.

The Catholic Medical Association (UK)

invites all health professionals, medical students and any others interested, to a talk to be given by Dr Dale Gardiner on "Organ Donation". Dr Gardiner is an Intensive Care Consultant at Nottingham University Hospitals and Deputy National Clinical Lead for Organ Donation and will give an informative, fascinating and stimulating talk on this important topic. The meeting will take place in St Barnabas' Cathedral Hall, Nottingham, at 7.30 pm on Tuesday 21st October 2014. For further information please contact Dr Tim Connery at tim.cma@hotmail.co.uk.
