

Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Time

First Reading

Exodus 22:20-26

The Lord said to Moses, Tell the sons of Israel this, You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans. If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him. If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 17:2-4.47.51

[R]: I love you, Lord, my strength.

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 1:5-10

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread - and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Open our heart, O Lord, to accept the words of your Son. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

This Week

Rest in Peace

In addition to the four funerals mentioned in last week's reminder (Anne Welch, Susannah McHugh, Mary Dykstra, and Albert Riley) we also had the funeral of Jean Lewis (mother of Hilary Hornsby) at Holy Souls on Friday afternoon. I have never known a week like this before either here or in my previous parish. Our prayers are with those who have died and with their families.

Poland Pilgrimage

Fr Eddy is away from Monday to Friday of this week together with 22 pilgrims from across the Scunthorpe Deanery. The intentions of the parish will be in the prayers of the pilgrims.

Parish Crafts and Gifts Fair

Sunday, 2nd November from 10.30 to 12:30 in the hall

We still have some stall space left for individuals - £5 for one metre table. We would be very grateful for donations of raffle prizes, cakes and preserves. If you can donate any home-made cake, biscuits, sweets, jam, curd, pickles or chutney for our parish stall, it would be very helpful. Please leave raffle prizes or preserves in the box in the hall entrance. Cakes can be brought to the hall on Saturday 1st between 4:30 pm and 5:30 pm or on Sunday from 9:00 am. All proceeds to the parish funds. Please help to make this event successful.

Cemetery Visits

The following are confirmed:

Sunday 2nd November - Woodlands

Sunday 9 November - Brumby

Sunday 16 November - Crosby
