

Readings for the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

First Reading

Ezekiel 47:1-2.8-9.12

The angel brought me to the entrance of the Temple, where a stream came out from under the Temple threshold and flowed eastwards, since the Temple faced east. The water flowed from under the right side of the Temple, south of the altar. He took me out by the north gate and led me right round outside as far as the outer east gate where the water flowed out on the right-hand side. He said, This water flows east down to the Arabah and to the sea; and flowing into the sea it makes its waters wholesome. Wherever the river flows, all living creatures teeming in it will live. Fish will be very plentiful, for wherever the water goes it brings health, and life teems wherever the river flows. Along the river, on either bank, will grow every kind of fruit tree with leaves that never wither and fruit that never fails; they will bear new fruit every month, because this water comes from the sanctuary. And their fruit will be good to eat and the leaves medicinal. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 45:2-3.5-6.8-9

[R]: The waters of a river give joy to God's city, the holy place where the Most High dwells.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 3:9-11.16-17

You are God's building. By the grace God gave me, I succeeded as an architect and laid the foundations, on which someone else is doing the building. Everyone doing the building must work carefully. For the foundation, nobody can lay any other than the one which has already been laid, that is Jesus Christ. Didn't you realise that you were God's temple and that the Spirit of God was living among you? If anybody should destroy the temple of God, God will destroy him, because the temple of God is sacred; and you are that temple. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I have chosen and consecrated this house, says the Lord, for my name to be there for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

John 2:13-22

Just before the Jewish Passover Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and in the Temple he found people selling cattle and sheep and pigeons, and the money-changers sitting at their counters there. Making a whip out of some cord, he drove them all out of the Temple, cattle and sheep as well, scattered the money-changers' coins, knocked their tables over and said to the pigeon-sellers, 'Take all this out of here and stop turning my Father's house into a market'. Then his disciples remembered the words of scripture: Zeal for your house will devour me. The Jews intervened and said, 'What sign can you show us to justify what you have done?' Jesus answered, 'Destroy this sanctuary, and in three days I will raise it up'. The Jews replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this sanctuary: are you going to raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the sanctuary that was his body, and when Jesus rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the words he had said. The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

This Week

Cemetery Visits

Sunday 9th November - Brumby

Sunday 16th November - Crosby

Gather at 3.00 pm for the Rosary and afterwards clergy will visit individual graves on request. If there are other local cemeteries where people have loved ones buried and would appreciate prayers being said there please let Fr Eddy know and he will see if anything can be arranged later in the month.

RCIA

A programme for adults wishing to celebrate any of the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, or Holy Communion), or who just wish to deepen their knowledge of the Catholic faith. Continues this Wednesday, 12th at 7.30 pm in the Hall. It is still not too late to begin.

Life Quiz

Friday, 14th November 2014, 7.30 pm at St Bernadette's. Please bring your own drinks and nibbles. Admission £2.00.

Faith Walk

All are invited to take part in a 'Faith Walk' on Saturday 15th November beginning at the Sikh Temple on Frodingham Road at 11.00 am. The walk will visit a number of places of worship on Frodingham Road and Oswald Road ending at the Café Church on Cottage Beck Road at about 1.00 pm. If you are unable to walk you might wish to be at Holy Souls between 11.30 am and about 12 noon to welcome the walk to our Church.

Scunthorpe Deanery Pilgrimage to Poland

The pilgrimage was based in the historic city of Krakow and the first full day was spent visiting the city including its ancient university, castle, cathedral, and market square. The next day included visits to the Basilica of the Divine Mercy at Lagiewniki, the birthplace of St John Paul II at Wadowice, and the nazi concentration camp of Auschwitz which was the site of the martyrdoms of St Maximilian Kolbe and St Teresa Benedicta of the Cross. On the final full day the group visited the Polish national shrine of Czestochowa and were privileged to be able to have Mass in front of the icon of Our Lady. This was the second Scunthorpe Deanery pilgrimage following a similar pilgrimage to Rome in February 2013, and hopefully further such pilgrimages will follow in the years ahead.

Cash for your Community

The Forge Project has signed up to be part of the Scunthorpe Telegraph's Cash for your Community campaign. If you wish to support them please cut out the coupons which will appear in the paper from next week and post in the box at the back of Church.

Christmas Mass Bouquets

Stuck for what to give someone for Christmas. Why not have a Mass offered for their intentions? The repository stall has a number of Christmas Mass Bouquet cards that you will be able to give to the person for whom you are having Mass offered. Any Mass offerings received for such Masses will be donated to the Sick and Retired Priests appeal.

St Augustine Webster Academy

Mrs Brolly and Mrs Pyman have informed the Governors that they will be retiring at the end of this academic year. The Governors have begun the process of seeking to recruit a new head and deputy head to continue to lead our parish primary school. Please keep this intention in your prayers throughout the coming months.

CANNONS

An event for young people aged 14-18, led by the Youth Service Team from The Briars, on Monday 17th November 7.00-9.00 pm. It will include music, prayer, guest speakers and food.

Annual Memorial Mass

Will take place on Thursday 20th November at 7.00 pm. We will be inviting the families of those who have had funerals at Holy Souls during the past year, but anyone who wishes to remember a loved one who has died, whether recently or many years ago, is welcome to attend and to light a candle in their memory.

First Holy Communion

Enrolment Mass

will take place on Sunday 23rd November at the 9.30 am Mass. All parents who wish their children to prepare for First Communion should have already completed an application form and attended a meeting for parents which took place last month.

Annual Bazaar

St Augustine Webster CVA, Baildon Road, Scunthorpe, DN15 8BU, in the school hall on Friday 28th November 2014 from 5.00 pm to 7.00 pm. All welcome.
