

Readings for Sixth Sunday of Year B

First Reading

Leviticus 13:1-2.44-46

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, If a swelling or scab or shiny spot appears on a mans skin, a case of leprosy of the skin is to be suspected. The man must be taken to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests who are his sons. The priest must declare him unclean; he is suffering from leprosy of the head. A man infected with leprosy must wear his clothing torn and his hair disordered; he must shield his upper lip and cry, Unclean, unclean. As long as the disease lasts he must be unclean; and therefore he must live apart: he must live outside the camp. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 31:1-2.5.11

[R]: You are my refuge, O Lord; you fill me with the joy of salvation.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 10:31 - 11:1

Whatever you eat, whatever you drink, whatever you do at all, do it for the glory of God. Never do anything offensive to anyone - to Jews or Greeks or to the Church of God; just as I try to be helpful to everyone at all times, not anxious for my own advantage but for the advantage of everybody else, so that they may be saved. Take me for your model, as I take Christ. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus and pleaded on his knees: 'If you want to' he said 'you can cure me.' Feeling sorry for him, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him. 'Of course I want to!' he said. 'Be cured!' And the leprosy left him at once and he was cured. Jesus immediately sent him away and sternly ordered him, 'Mind you say nothing to anyone, but go and show yourself to the priest, and make the offering for your healing prescribed by Moses as evidence of your recovery.' The man went away, but then started talking about it freely and telling the story everywhere, so that Jesus could no longer go openly into any town, but had to stay outside in places where nobody lived. Even so, people from all around would come to him. The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Gift Aid I

the entitlement to gift aid relies on the donor being a taxpayer, and having sufficient income subject to tax to cover all the gift aid donations. Unfortunately the finance office has no way of knowing that this is the case and relies on the donor themselves telling us that they no longer pay gift aid and that the gift aid declaration needs to be cancelled. Given that fewer people now pay tax because of the new allowances could you make sure you let the Gift Aid office in Nottingham know should you cease to be a tax payer.

Gift Aid II

We are coming close to the time of year when we distribute new boxes of envelopes. If you would like to have a box of planned giving envelopes or if you would like to give by standing order then please pass your contact details to Fr Eddy.

Parish Hall

The hall is available to hire and we would like to compile a list of suggested services for hirers to use. If you are registered and insured to provide services that may be useful (disco, musical entertainment, children's entertainment, catering etc) please speak to Marie Dowse. You will need to provide details of any registrations and insurance relevant to your service.
