

Readings for Easter Sunday

First Reading

Acts 10:34.37-43

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses - we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead - and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.' The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:

Ps: 117:1-2.16-17.22-23

[R]: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 5:6-8

You must know how even a small amount of yeast is enough to leaven all the dough, so get rid of all the old yeast, and make yourselves into a completely new batch of bread, unleavened as you are meant to be. Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed; let us celebrate the feast, then, by getting rid of all the old yeast of evil and wickedness, having only the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

The Word of the Lord.

Sequence:

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise.

The sheep are ransomed by the Lamb; and Christ, the undefiled, hath sinners to his Father reconciled.

Death with life contended; combat strangely ended!

Life's own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign.

Tell us, Mary: say what thou didst see upon the way.

The tomb the Living did enclose; I saw Christ's glory as he rose!

The angels there attesting; shroud with grave-clothes resting.

Christ, my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee.

That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know.

Victorious king, they mercy show!

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Christ, our passover, has been sacrificed; let us celebrate the feast then, in the lord. Alleluia!

This Week

Bill Heatley RIP

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Bill Heatley, a faithful parishioner of this parish for well over 50 years. His funeral will take place on Friday morning at 11.00 am. Even as recently as four weeks ago he would be faithfully at Mass every morning and would help out around the Church in many different ways. He will be very much missed. We pray that he may rest in peace and we pray also for Ruby and their family in this time of loss.

Congratulations

To Alec Smith who was baptised at the Easter Vigil, to Lucy Cooper and Elaine Hemingway who were received into full communion with the Church, and to Amanda Clark and Anita Wilkinson who together with the above three were Confirmed and made their First Holy Communion.
