

Readings for Pentecost Sunday

First Reading

Acts 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. Surely they said all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya around Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 103:1.24.29-31.34

[R] Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading

Galatians 5:16-25

If you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you. When self-indulgence is at work the results are obvious: fornication, gross indecency and sexual irresponsibility; idolatry and sorcery; feuds and wrangling, jealousy, bad temper and quarrels; disagreements, factions, envy; drunkenness, orgies and similar things. I warn you now, as I warned you before: those who behave like this will not inherit the kingdom of God. What the Spirit brings is very different: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness and self-control. There can be no law against things like that, of course. You cannot belong to Christ Jesus unless you crucify all self-indulgent passions and desires. Since the Spirit is our life, let us be directed by the Spirit. The Word of the Lord.

Pentecost Sequence (see page 3)

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

Gospel

John 15:26-27; 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Advocate comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who issues from the Father, he will be my witness. And you too will be witnesses, because you have been with me from the outset. I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

This Week

New Bishop of Nottingham

The Holy Father Pope Francis has appointed Monsignor Patrick McKinney, a priest of the Archdiocese of Birmingham, as the tenth Bishop of Nottingham. He will become Bishop at his Episcopal Ordination on Friday 3rd July. Further information on the parish and diocesan websites, but please keep our Bishop-Elect in your prayers at this time.

Fr Eddy added The Bishop Elect was present at a meeting of Deans which took place earlier this week, and that all the Deans present were able to tell him something about their Deaneries and he listened carefully and asked good questions. We hope that it will not be too long before he is able to visit our Deanery and may be even our parish and then we will all have the opportunity to meet him.

CINS Pentecost Service

At the Congregational Church on Ferry Road West at 5.00 pm this Sunday.

Please come and join us in the Parish Hall for tea and coffee after the 9.30 am Sunday Mass

No Mass on Wednesday

There will be no Mass this Wednesday as our new stained glass windows are being installed.

Deanery Corpus Christi

Procession

Will take place at St Norbert's, Crowle on Sunday 7th June following the 11.15am Mass. First Communion children are invited to come in their First Communion outfits. Bring a picnic if you wish, tea and coffee will be provided in the church hall.

PPC Meeting

Can we meet on Monday 8th June at 7.30pm?

Sing and Play with joy to God

A workshop for musicians (singers and instrumentalists) led by Tony Wheat, Alex Patterson, and Father Joel Nwalozie on Saturday 20th June at Holy Trinity in Newark. See Fr Eddy for further details.

RCIA

Thanks to all who took part in the group this year. If you are interested in being part of next year's group please leave your contact details with Fr Eddy.

Clergy Moves and appointments

The following moves will take place in the Scunthorpe Deanery in early September:

Fr Benedict will be leaving Holy Souls and moving to St Mary's in Brigg.

Fr Dominic O'Connor will be leaving St Mary's in Brigg and moving to St Bernadette's in Ashby.

Fr Peter Wade will be leaving St Bernadette's in Ashby and moving to the parish of Sacred Heart, Skegness.

This means that we will lose Fr Peter from the Deanery and we will be left with four priests to serve the six parishes of our Deanery.

This is the number of priests envisaged by 'You are Living Stones' so we can be confident that there will be no further reduction in the number of priests.

Pentecost Sequence

Holy Spirit, Lord of light,
From the clear celestial height
Thy pure beaming radiance give.

Come, thou Father of the poor,
Come with treasures which endure;
Come, thou light of all that live!

Thou, of all consolers best,
Thou, the soul's delightful guest,
Dost refreshing peace bestow;

Thou in toil art comfort sweet;
Pleasant coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.

Light immortal, light divine,
Visit thou these hearts of thine,
And our inmost being fill:

If thou take thy grace away,
Nothing pure in man will stay;
All his good is turned to ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour thy dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away:

Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.

Thou, on us who evermore
These confess and thee adore,
With thy sevenfold gifts descend:

Give us comfort when we die;
Give us life with thee on high;
Give us joys that never end.
