

Readings for Corpus Christi – Year B

First Reading

Exodus 24:3-8

Moses went and told the people all the commands of the Lord and all the ordinances. In answer, all the people said with one voice, We will observe all the commands that the Lord has decreed. Moses put all the commands of the Lord into writing, and early next morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain, with twelve standing-stones for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then he directed certain young Israelites to offer holocausts and to immolate bullocks to the Lord as communion sacrifices. Half of the blood Moses took up and put into basins, the other half he cast on the altar. And taking the Book of the Covenant he read it to the listening people, and they said, We will observe all that the Lord has decreed; we will obey. Then Moses took the blood and cast it towards the people. This he said is the blood of the Covenant that the Lord has made with you, containing all these rules. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 115:12-13.15-18

[R] The cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name.

Second Reading

Hebrews 9:11-15

Now Christ has come, as the high priest of all the blessings which were to come. He has passed through the greater, the more perfect tent, which is better than one made by men's hands because it is not of this created order; and he has entered the sanctuary once and for all, taking with him not the blood of goats and bull calves, but his own blood, having won an eternal redemption for us. The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer are sprinkled on those who have incurred defilement and they restore the holiness of their outward lives; how much more effectively the blood of Christ, who offered himself as the perfect sacrifice to God through the eternal Spirit, can purify our inner self from dead actions so that we do our service to the living God. He brings a new covenant, as the mediator, only so that the people who were called to an eternal inheritance may actually receive what was promised: his death took place to cancel the sins that infringed the earlier covenant. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread who has come down from heaven, says the Lord. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 14:12-16.22-26

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?' So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the Passover with my disciples?" He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover. And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' he said 'this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.' After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

This Week

Rest in Peace ~ This week we have the funerals of two long standing parishioners of Holy Souls, Marie Prior and Mary Niland. Please keep them and their families in your prayers.

Parish Representative for Ordination ~ each parish has been invited to have one representative at the Episcopal Ordination at St Barnabas Cathedral on Friday 3rd July (during the day time) and also at the reception which will follow it. You will have to be prepared to make your own way to and from Nottingham. If you would like to go please let Fr Eddy know no later than Sunday 7th June. If there is more than one applicant then a name will be drawn 'out of a hat'.

Deanery Corpus Christi Procession ~ will take place at St Norbert's, Crowle this Sunday following the 11.15 am Mass. First Communion children are invited to come in their First Communion outfits. Bring a picnic if you wish; tea and coffee will be provided in the Church hall.

PPC Meeting ~ Monday 8th June at 7.30pm.

Diaconate Ordinations ~ please pray this week for Dusan Harvilik who is to be ordained deacon in Kosice, Slovakia, on Friday and for Daniel Palmer who is to be ordained deacon at Westminster Cathedral in London on Saturday. God willing, they should both be ordained to the priesthood next summer.

Readers Rota ~ if anyone would like to be added to the readers' rota please speak to Fr Eddy or to Adrian Murrell. A new rota will begin from the end of this month.

New Stained Glass Windows

Our new windows were fitted earlier this week. They honour St Augustine Webster, St Jean Marie Vianney and St John Paul II. The inscription in Polish under St John Paul II means 'in thanksgiving for an example of sanctity from grateful countrymen'.

If you wish to see a series of photographs showing how the older windows were moved and the new ones installed then please visit the 'Gallery' section of the parish web site.

As the idea for the windows emerged out of our centenary celebrations in 2011 perhaps we can call them the 'centenary windows' even though the final installation took place a few years later.

Sing and Play with joy to God

A workshop for musicians (singers and instrumentalists) led by Tony Wheat, Alex Patterson, and Father Joel Nwalozie on Saturday 20th June at Holy Trinity in Newark. See Fr Eddy for further details.

Proclaim '15 - Building Missionary parishes: Cardinal's call to prayer & new resources

Proclaim '15 is the name of a national Bishops' Conference initiative to support parish evangelisation. Cardinal Nichols has recently released a video message about it, inviting every parish in England and Wales to offer prayer on 11th July for the work of evangelisation – this is the same day that representatives from every diocese will gather in Birmingham for the National Catholic Evangelisation Conference. Free prayer resources are available for download, as are materials to encourage the organisation of local Proclaim events in dioceses, deaneries and parishes this autumn. To watch the Cardinal's video message and for all the materials highlighted please visit:

Celebrate Cleethorpes 2015

Catholic Charismatic weekend on 11th/12th July. Next weekend one of the organising team will speak briefly at the end of Masses to extend an invitation for people to take part.

St Augustine Webster

In view of the forthcoming retirements of Mrs Brolly and Mrs Pyman, the Governors of the school have appointed Mrs Andrea Morrisroe to the post of Deputy Headteacher and Mrs Kirsty Matthews to the post of Assistant Headteacher, both appointments taking effect from September. The Governors have so far been unable to appoint a Headteacher so from September Mrs Morrisroe will be Acting Headteacher and Mrs Matthews Acting Deputy. Governors will continue to seek a Headteacher for the school. Thank you to parishioners for your prayers over the past few months, and please continue them as our parish school looks forward to new and exciting challenges ahead.
