

Readings for the 11th Sunday

First Reading

Ezekiel 17:22-24

The Lord says this: From the top of the cedar, from the highest branch I will take a shoot and plant it myself on a very high mountain. I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel. It will sprout branches and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every winged creature rest in the shade of its branches. And every tree of the field will learn that I, the Lord, am the one who stunts tall trees and makes the low ones grow, who withers green trees and makes the withered green. I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 91:2-3.13-16

[R]: It is good to give you thanks, O Lord.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 5:6-10

We are always full of confidence when we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from the Lord, going as we do by faith and not by sight - we are full of confidence, I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with the Lord. Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing him. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the law court of Christ, and each of us will get what he deserves for the things he did in the body, good or bad. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 4:26-34

Jesus said to the crowds, 'This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man throws seed on the land. Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, he loses no time; he starts to reap because the harvest has come.' He also said, 'What can we say the kingdom of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.' Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were alone.

The Gospel of the Lord

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Health and Safety - Fr Eddy has asked Nigel Dowse to be responsible for making sure that the Parish complies with the Health and Safety Policy of the Diocese and the requirements of our insurers. Making sure that our Parish is a safe and welcoming place for parishioners and visitors is not just an administrative exercise but very much part of our pastoral responsibility. Over the course of time Nigel will no doubt be speaking with various people so please offer him your support and cooperation as he is doing this essential work for the good of us all.

Altar Servers - any children (boys and girls) who have made their First Holy Communion and who are interested in learning how to serve on the altar are asked (with a parent) to make themselves known to Deacon Bernard.

Forthcoming Second Collection - the collection for Peter's Pence will be taken on the weekend of 27th/28th June.

Supper Night

Our next quiz and supper night will be held at the Village Hall in Roxby on Thursday 25th June. Having the event out of town reminds us that our parish extends beyond the limits of Scunthorpe. Hopefully this event will be an opportunity for parishioners in the villages to the north of Scunthorpe to enjoy a parish social event on their doorstep as well as an opportunity for town based parishioners to have an evening out of town. Tickets are priced at £6 and are available after Masses this weekend. The quiz will commence at 7.00 pm.

St Augustine Webster

With the forthcoming retirements of Mrs Brolly and Mrs Pyman, the Governors of the school have appointed Mrs Morrisroe to the post of Deputy Headteacher and Mrs Matthews to the post of Assistant Headteacher, taking effect from September. The Governors have so far been unable to appoint a Headteacher so from September Mrs Morrisroe will be Acting Headteacher and Mrs Matthews Acting Deputy. Governors will continue to seek a Headteacher for the school. Thank you for your prayers over the past few months, and please continue them as our parish school looks forward to new and exciting challenges ahead.

New Stained Glass Windows

Our new windows honour St Augustine Webster, St Jean Marie Vianney and St John Paul II. The inscription in Polish under St John Paul II means 'in thanksgiving for an example of sanctity from grateful countrymen'.

If you wish to see a series of photographs showing how the older windows were moved and the new ones installed then please visit the 'Gallery' section of the parish web site.
