

Readings for the 12th Sunday ~ Year B

First Reading

Job 38:1.8-11

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said: Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate? Come thus far, I said, and no farther; here your proud waves shall break. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 106:23-26.28-31

[R] O give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures forever.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 5:14-17

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them. From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 4:35-41

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

This Week

Financial Report - please pick up a copy from the back of Church. Thank you for your generous giving throughout the past financial year.

Health and Safety - Fr Eddy has asked Nigel Dowse to be responsible for making sure that the Parish complies with the Health and Safety Policy of the Diocese and the requirements of our insurers. Making sure that our Parish is a safe and welcoming place for parishioners and visitors is not just an administrative exercise but very much part of our pastoral responsibility. Over the course of time Nigel will no doubt be speaking with various people so please offer him your support and cooperation as he is doing this essential work for the good of us all.

Altar Servers - any children (boys and girls) who have made their First Holy Communion and who are interested in learning how to serve on the altar are asked (with a parent) to make themselves known to Deacon Bernard.

Supper Night - Our next quiz and supper night will be held at the Methodist Chapel Hall, South Street, Roxby on Thursday 25th June 7.00pm - 9.00pm. Having the event out of town reminds us that our parish extends beyond the limits of Scunthorpe. Hopefully this event will be an opportunity for parishioners in the villages to the north of Scunthorpe to enjoy a parish social event on their doorstep as well as an opportunity for town based parishioners to have an evening out of town. Tickets are priced at £6 and are available after Masses this weekend.

Forthcoming Second Collection - the collection for Peter's Pence will be taken next weekend of 27th/28th June.

Jonathan Rose

As some people will know, Fr Eddy spent a few days in Rome earlier this week and amongst other things he met with Jonathan Rose who is to be ordained to the priesthood on 11th July. Jonathan asked to be remembered to parishioners at Holy Souls and requests our prayers as he prepares for his ordination.

Briars Sponsored Bike Ride

Darrell Bright, a member of staff at St Bede's, is taking part in a 150 mile bike ride to raise funds for the Diocesan Youth Centre at the Briars between Friday 3rd and Sunday 5th July. Many parishioners will have either been to The Briars themselves or will have heard about it through their children and grandchildren. Hopefully parishioners will be able to support Mr Bright through their prayers and also through financial donations. More details next weekend.
