

Readings for St Peter & St Paul

First Reading

Acts 12:1-11

King Herod started persecuting certain members of the Church. He beheaded James the brother of John, and when he saw that this pleased the Jews he decided to arrest Peter as well. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread, and he put Peter in prison, assigning four squads of four soldiers each to guard him in turns. Herod meant to try Peter in public after the end of Passover week. All the time Peter was under guard the Church prayed to God for him unremittingly. On the night before Herod was to try him, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, fastened with double chains, while guards kept watch at the main entrance to the prison. Then suddenly the angel of the Lord stood there, and the cell was filled with light. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him. Get up! he said Hurry! - and the chains fell from his hands. The angel then said, Put on your belt and sandals. After he had done this, the angel next said, Wrap your cloak round you and follow me. Peter followed him, but had no idea that what the angel did was all happening in reality; he thought he was seeing a vision. They passed through two guard posts one after the other, and reached the iron gate leading to the city. This opened of its own accord; they went through it and had walked the whole length of one street when suddenly the angel left him. It was only then that Peter came to himself. Now I know it is all true, he said. The Lord really did send his angel and has saved me from Herod and from all that the Jewish people were so certain would happen to me.

The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 33:2-9

[R]: From all my terrors the Lord set me free.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:6-8.17-18

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing. The Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church. And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Matthew 16:13-19

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say he is John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he said 'who do you say I am?' Then Simon Peter spoke up, 'You are the Christ,' he said 'the Son of the living God.' Jesus replied, 'Simon son of Jonah, you are a happy man! Because it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. So I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church. And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

This Week

Church Parade

This Sunday our Beavers and Cubs will be at the 9.30 am Mass. We assure them of a warm welcome and we hope that this will lead to a resumption of regular 'Church Parades' for our uniformed groups in the autumn.

Bishop Patrick's Ordination

We welcome to the Diocese of Nottingham Mgr Patrick McKinney, who will be ordained Tenth Bishop of Nottingham in St Barnabas' Cathedral on Friday 3rd July 2015; the Mass will be streamed on the diocesan website, www.nottingham-diocese.org.uk, from 10.30 am. Those without tickets to the Mass will be unable to attend, but will be able to participate in the Liturgy by watching it on the website and joining in prayer. All are welcome to Vespers in St Barnabas' Cathedral on Thursday 2nd July at 5.00 pm, and to two Masses which the Bishop will celebrate in the Cathedral on Sunday 5th July at 11.15 am and 6.00 pm. Please pray for our new Bishop as he prepares for his Ordination.

Please note that the only Masses at Holy Souls on Friday will be the Polish Masses at 9.30 am and 7.00 pm.

Prayer intentions in preparation for the Episcopal Ordination of Mgr Patrick McKinney

There will be a series of Holy Hours at the Cathedral in Nottingham to prepare for the forthcoming Episcopal Ordination, and we can join in spirit by praying for those intentions on those days:

Sunday, 28th June	The people of the Diocese of Nottingham
Monday, 29th June	Priests, Deacons, and Religious of the Diocese of Nottingham
Tuesday, 30th June	Mgr McKinney's former parish in Stourbridge
Wednesday, 1st July	Mgr Patrick McKinney

Jonathan Rose

As some people will know, Fr Eddy spent a few days in Rome recently and amongst other things he met with Jonathan Rose who is to be ordained to the priesthood on 11th July. Jonathan asked to be remembered to parishioners at Holy Souls and requests our prayers as he prepares for his Ordination.

Briars Sponsored Bike Ride

Darrell Bright, a member of staff at St Bede's, is taking part in a 150 mile bike ride to raise funds for the Diocesan Youth Centre at the Briars between Friday 3rd and Sunday 5th July. Many parishioners will have either been to The Briars themselves or will have heard about it through their children and grandchildren. Hopefully parishioners will be able to support Mr Bright through their prayers and also through financial donations and there will be a retiring collection next weekend.

Masses in August

Earlier in the spring the priests of the Scunthorpe Deanery got together to co-ordinate their holiday plans so that the current schedule of Masses could be maintained throughout the summer. However unforeseen family circumstances mean that this is no longer the case. Therefore for the weekends of 8th/9th and 15th/16th August Masses in Scunthorpe and Ashby will be as follows:

Saturday, 6.30 pm	St Bernadette's
Sunday, 9.30 am	Holy Souls
Sunday, 10.30 am	St Bernadette's
Sunday, 6.30 pm	Holy Souls

The Deanery priests hope that parishioners will understand the reason for these changes, and will realise that such changes may need to reoccur in the future as the number of priests in the Deanery decreases by one in the autumn.
