

Readings for the 14th Sunday

First Reading

Ezekiel 2:2-5

The spirit came into me and made me stand up, and I heard the Lord speaking to me. He said, Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to the rebels who have turned against me. Till now they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me. The sons are defiant and obstinate; I am sending you to them, to say, The Lord says this. Whether they listen or not, this set of rebels shall know there is a prophet among them. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 122

[R]: Our eyes are on the Lord till he shows us his mercy.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 12:7-10

In view of the extraordinary nature of these revelations, to stop me from getting too proud I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and stop me from getting too proud! About this thing, I have pleaded with the Lord three times for it to leave me, but he has said, 'My grace is enough for you: my power is at its best in weakness.' So I shall be very happy to make my weaknesses my special boast so that the power of Christ may stay over me, and that is why I am quite content with my weaknesses, and with insults, hardships, persecutions, and the agonies I go through for Christ's sake. For it is when I am weak that I am strong. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! The Word was made flesh and lived among us; to all who did accept him He gave power to become children of God. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 6:1-6

Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the Sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, 'Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?' And they would not accept him. And Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is only despised in his own country, among his own relations and in his own house'; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith. The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

This Week

Briars Sponsored Bike Ride

Darrell Bright, a member of staff at St Bede's, is taking part in a 150 mile bike ride to raise funds for the Diocesan Youth Centre at the Briars this weekend. Many parishioners will have either been to The Briars themselves or will have heard about it through their children and grandchildren. Hopefully parishioners will be able to support Mr Bright through their prayers and also through financial donations and there will be a retiring collection this weekend.

Christine Lisle RIP

Christine's funeral takes place on Sunday evening and Monday morning. An active member of our parish for many years, Christine has looked after the Gift Aid for our parish for over 10 years, and has also served the Diocesan Marriage Tribunal as an auditor. Please remember Christine and her family in your prayers at this time.

Tenth anniversary of 7/7

In order to remember the victims of this atrocity and their families a gathering for a shared moment of silent prayer is being held by the peace tree at the front of the Civic Centre on Tuesday evening at 6.00 pm. All are welcome to attend.

St Augustine Webster Voluntary Academy

Please remember our school especially in your prayers on Thursday as the Governors will be interviewing candidates for the headship.

Thank You

To our Polish community for a generous donation of £3,350 towards the new stained glass windows which covers the cost of the window dedicated to St John Paul II.

Bishop Patrick McKinney

After 14 months without one, our Diocese once again has a Bishop. We congratulate Bishop Patrick on his Ordination and assure him that we will honour his request for our prayers. The Ordination Mass at the Cathedral on Friday was a wonderful occasion and Fr Eddy, Deacon Bernard, and Mrs Frances Wattam, who attended as our parish representative, felt privileged to be present. Hopefully others managed to watch it over the internet, but if you were unable to do so on the day the whole Ordination Mass is still available on the diocesan web-site.

Jonathan Rose

Please pray for Jonathan who is to be Ordained priest next Saturday at St Barnabas Cathedral, Nottingham.

Fr Benedict

Is away on holiday for the rest of July. We wish him safe travels and a good rest.

Crosby One Centre

Community Lunch Saturday 18th July, 12 noon to 2.00 pm, chance to see and comment on the plans for the redevelopment of the site.

Sick and Retired Priests Appeal

Thank you to Mr McDonald for a recent donation of plants which we have been selling for the past couple of weeks. As a parish our total (including pledges) now stands at £17,988 which is 28% of the target we were originally asked to raise. Thank you all for your generosity to date, we will need to revisit the appeal in the autumn to see if we can make further progress towards our target.

Sea Sunday

Normally this would fall next weekend but as Fr Colum Kelly (the Catholic Chaplain at Immingham Docks) will be with us for a weekend in August he will make an appeal and take a second collection on that occasion.

Masses in August

Earlier in the spring the priests of the Scunthorpe Deanery got together to co-ordinate their holiday plans so that the current schedule of Masses could be maintained throughout the summer. However unforeseen family circumstances mean that this is no longer the case. Therefore for the weekends of 8th/9th and 15th/16th August Masses in Scunthorpe and Ashby will be as follows:

|                          |                        |
|--------------------------|------------------------|
| Saturday, 6.30 pm | St Bernadette's |
| Sunday, 9.30 am   | Holy Souls      |
| Sunday, 10.30 am  | St Bernadette's |
| Sunday, 6.30 pm   | Holy Souls      |

The Deanery priests hope that parishioners will understand the reason for these changes, and will realise that such changes may need to reoccur in the future as the number of priests in the Deanery decreases by one in the autumn.

Diocesan Paper

Please pick up a copy of the July edition, which includes photographs of our new stained glass windows and Fr Wlodzimierz Pajak's Silver Jubilee Mass.

Please come and join us in the Parish Hall for tea and coffee after the 9.30 am Sunday Mass
