

27th Sunday of Ordinary Time – Year B

First Reading

Genesis 2:18-24

The Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone. I will make him a helpmate. So from the soil the Lord God fashioned all the wild beasts and all the birds of heaven. These he brought to the man to see what he would call them, each one was to bear the name the man would give it. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of heaven and all the wild beasts. But no helpmate suitable for man was found for him. So the Lord God made the man fall into a deep sleep. And while he slept, he took one of his ribs and enclosed it in flesh. The Lord God built the rib he had taken from the man into a woman, and brought her to the man. The man exclaimed: This at last is bone from my bones, and flesh from my flesh! This is to be called woman, for this was taken from man. This is why a man leaves his father and mother and joins himself to his wife, and they become one body. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 127

[R]: May the Lord Bless us all the days of our life.

Second Reading

Hebrews 2:9-11

We see in Jesus one who was for a short while made lower than the angels and is now crowned with glory and splendour because he submitted to death; by God's grace he had to experience death for all mankind. As it was his purpose to bring a great many of his sons into glory, it was appropriate that God, for whom everything exists and through whom everything exists, should make perfect, through suffering, the leader who would take them to their salvation. For the one who sanctifies, and the ones who are sanctified, are of the same stock; that is why he openly calls them brothers. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Your Word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Mark 10:2-12

Some Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, 'Is it against the law for a man to divorce his wife?' They were testing him. He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' 'Moses allowed us' they said 'to draw up a writ of dismissal and so to divorce.' Then Jesus said to them, 'It was because you were so unteachable that he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female. This is why a man must leave father and mother, and the two become one body. They are no longer two, therefore, but one body. So then, what God has united, man must not divide.' Back in the house the disciples questioned him again about this, and he said to them, 'The man who divorces his wife and marries another is guilty of adultery against her. And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another she is guilty of adultery too.' The Gospel of the Lord.

The Mystery of Faith:

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

PPC

Thanks to all who submitted their nomination forms, and you will be pleased to hear that your nominations have been accepted. The first two meetings will be on Monday 12th October and Monday 7th December.

Quiz Night

We shall be holding a Quiz Night in aid of the Forge Project in the Church Hall on Friday 23rd October 7pm for 7.15pm. Tickets Adults £5, Children £2. A homemade soup supper is included and it is hoped there will be a cake stall. Tickets available from Elaine Hemingway on 842834

Blessing of Centenary Window

Bishop Patrick will be coming to Holy Souls on Saturday 31st October to celebrate the 5.30 pm Mass and to bless our Centenary window. After Mass we will have a shared table supper in the Hall and we would particularly welcome traditional food (savory or sweet) from the many different countries that are represented in our parish. Please sign the list so that we know what food to expect. NB: No Halloween themed food or other items!

World Youth Day

Join Pope Francis and millions of other young adults from around the world in Krakow, Poland from 22 July to 1 August 2016. The Diocesan Youth Service will be taking young adults (ages 18-25 at time of travel). The estimated cost is £900 and includes travel, accommodation, events, meals, and insurance. If you would like further details please e-mail peter@ndcys.com

Marriages in 2016

If any couples are hoping to get married in 2016 then please speak to Fr Eddy at your earliest convenience if you have not already done so.

Masses during November

This year all Masses in November will be offered for 'The Holy Souls'. Hand in your November List as usual and your loved ones will be included in all the Masses. As in previous years any donations received with November Lists will be given to Lindsey Lodge Hospice.

Apostleship of the Sea

Calling all knitters. Can you knit some woolly hats for sea farers? Please follow the Apostleship of the Sea pattern (available from sacristy) which is designed with gale force winds in mind. If you enjoyed listening to Father Colum Kelly in August you might be pleased to learn that Fr Eddy has arranged an opportunity for us to visit the Seafarers Centre and learn a bit more about its work and how we might be able to support it. The date for your diaries is Saturday 27 February 2016, further details to follow nearer the time.

Altar Servers

Welcome to our new altar servers who joined our team last weekend. If any children wish to learn how to serve Mass please speak with Deacon Bernard who will arrange some training for them.

Advance Waring

Fr Eddy will be away from the parish from Monday 19th to Thursday 29th October.
